Moraga Master Plan Hearing on May 6

Zoning Plan Will Also Be Orffred by County Staff

The County Planning Commission will hold a public hearing on the Moraga master plan May 6, 8 p.m., in Martinez, County Planning Director Thomas Heaton announced yesterday.

At the same session a zoning plan for Moraga Valley will be presented, Heaton said.

Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith stated that the county planning staff is now working on both plans will not be able to disclose details "until the end of April."

A press release issued by the commission stated:

"UNDER INSTRUCTION from the County Planning Commission the staff is now preparing a general plan for the Moraga area. The commission is therefore setting May 6, 1955, for a public hearing on this plan.

"Likewise on May 6, accompanying the general plan will be a proposed precise land use plan (zoning plan) which will be based on the general plan.

"Hearings on these two matters will be conducted concurrently."

Two Planning Commission hearings are required before the matter is sent to the Board of Supervisors. However, Griffith said:

"The February 4 hearing was the first hearing. But as many hearings as necessary can be held."

THE GENERAL PLAN is commonly referred to as a master plan. "It's the same idea as the Orinda master plan," Griffith explained.

Preparation of the Moraga plan was ordered at the February 4 session, which was attended by more than 500 persons.

At that hearing, Utah Construction Company asked for immediate zoning of 10,146 acres in Moraga Valley.

THE COMPANY ASKED for 7200-square-foot lots in the major portion of its development for an anticipated 30,000 people.

But "preliminary comprehensive studies" submitted for the county staff by Heaton called for 2358 acres in half-acre lots, 1718 acres in 10,000-square-foot lots, 348 acres in 7200-square-foot lots and 55 acres of 8000-square-foot lots for duplexes.

Also suggested by the county planning staff were 114 acres for retail business at Moraga townsite, 43 acres for neighborhood business and 143 acres for a controlled manufacturing district.

SINCE THE February 4 hearing, an areawide Emergency Committee for Master Planning of Contra Costa County has been formed.

Immediate impetus for formation of this organization was the controversy over the Moraga area.

Groups throughout Central Contra Costa County, demanding a master plan for Moraga prior to zoning, banded together to form the Emergency Committee.

Violich Retained As New Flareup Occurs Over PIE

Professor Francis Violich, well-known for his consulting services to the Orinda Planning Committee during the past year and a half, is being retained by the Orinda Association to prepare a brochure on the Pine Grove.

Retention of Violich, in connection with the current controversy over Pacific Intermountain Express' plans for a $750,000 office headquarters at the Pine Grove, was voted Monday night by the association's board, meeting in Orinda School library.

Hiring of Violich had been proposed by the Civic Affairs Committee last week .

PRESIDENT Robert Boyle announced that a special meeting of the board will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Monday at the school. He asked James Hupp, chairman of the Orinda Planning Committee of the association, to invite Violich to that session.

C. G. Zwingle, PIE vice-president and general manager, said his firm will be ready with its brochure by April 15, the date which has been agreed upon as the earliest for simultaneous release of detailed pro-and-con arguments.

It was decided that the association board and the Civic Affairs Committee will hold a joint meeting April 18.

THE CONTROVERSY over PIE received new sparks when W. W. Lee of the Orinda Estates Owners Association read a letter he said was from his board and which was signed by President H. F. Noller, in which objection was voiced to financial support of the proposed Violich study of the Pine Grove. Financial support by local groups had been suggested by Civic Affairs.

"We do not in principle oppose the entry of Pacific Intermountain Express Company into the Orinda area, provided that the proposed office building will follow the general architectural theme of the area," the letter stated.

"It is felt by our group that the erection of an office building in the central Orinda area, similar in design to the Sunset Magazine building in Menlo Park, would meet these requirements and would be an asset to the community."

THE LETTER declared that if the Violich study is for the Pine Grove only, "we regret that we cannot endorse this action and that we would not be willing to extend our financial support."

It continued: "The first site considered in such a survey should be the present Community Center property."

Boyle, Hupp and Chairman Paul Pollaczek of the Civic Affairs Committee declared that the letter from Noller was "premature" and went into arguments before the facts were disseminated.

In a letter to Noller dated Wednesday, Pollaczek stated:

"I . . . CONSIDER it my duty as chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee to point out to you that it certainly was not the intent of those present at the Civic Affairs Committee meeting to prejudge Orinda's case by either endorsing or rejecting PIE's proposed used of the land.

"It seems to me that your letter was written without having studied the facts and problems involved. since PIE's report will not be made public prior to April 15 and the report of the Orinda Planning Committee has been withheld until that date.

"Furthermore, I doubt whether you had sufficient time to poll each member of your improvement association.

"IF THE ISSUE of the future land use of the Pine Grove were to be determined by a small minority of residents, I certainly would feel that democratic processes had been ignored.

"In the final analysis the CAC will submit its findings to the board on the basis of conclusive showing of the preference expressed by the majority of the residents."

Greyhound Asks Commute Fares Be Cancelled

Pacific Greyhound Lines said Tuesday it will ask all commute fares between Contra Costa County and San Francisco be "canceled and annulled" unless the Contra Costa County Commuters Association withdraws its request for Pleasant Hill commutation rates.

The association complained to the California Public Utilities Commission February 23 that Pleasant Hill commuters were being discriminated against and sought fares for those commuters "comparable to others in the area."

GREYHOUND TUESDAY asked the PUC to deny the request and cancel all commute fares.

M. C. Frailey, vice president and general manager of Greyhound, said the company will not press for cancellation unless the association persists in its request.

The company answer said it is "impossible to determine how it (Greyhound) could, if it so desired, satisfy the matters complained of."

It also charged its present commute fares are causing it to lose money and are "grossly noncompensatory."

LEROY SOWERSr president of the commuters association, said yesterday the association's request was on behalf of those commuters living near Pleasant Hill Road who must ride the Martinez-Berkeley bus and transfer at Acalanes Junction.

He said other Pleasant Hill commuters can buy commute books from Walnut Creek or Concord, but that those near Pleasant Hill Road had to pay 30 cents each way from their home to Acalanes Junction where they transfer to Oakland and San Francisco bound buses.

He indicated the association has not considered withdrawing its request.

The PUC has set no hearing date on the dispute.

Requests for Use of Community Center Spur New Study of Association Land

Orinda Community Center land assumed renewed significance Monday night as four separate requests for use of the land came before the Orinda Association Board of Directors.

Considered at the board meeting in Orinda School library were requests from the Orinda Fire Board, the Orinda Library Board, the Orinda Community Church and the Dramateurs.

The fire board's request and that of the library group were for the same section of land, just south of Irwin Way and on the east side of San Pablo Dam Road.

The Community Church and the Dramateurs did not specify any particular sections.

ASSOCIATION DIRECTORS decided to have all available data on Community Center property assembled, in preparation for further survey of the land.

At request of President Robert Boyle, Joseph Smooth agreed to work with William Penn Mott Jr. on this matter.

Smoot, who is associated with David Coleman, consulting architect, has given considerable volunteer assistance to the local library group, which consists of representatives of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club and the Orinda Lions Club.

ZACH MONTGOMERY, vice-president of the Orinda Fire Board and past president of the Orinda Association, reported that at its March 24 meeting the fire board had decided to ask for the site at Irwin Way and San Pablo Dam Road for a new site for Fire House 1, now located on Avenida De Orinda. He said:

"When San Pablo Dam Road is relocated behind the Village, there will be, according to present plans, an access road almost directly opposite Irwin Way. Even at present there is congestion. So the fire board is looking for another site.

"Chief H. E. Wyatt is of the opinion that the site we are asking for is the best one. We also believe there is room in that section for both a fire house and a library building."

THE DRAMATEURS' request stated that the group wants to have its own theater building.

The Dramateurs' letter was from Clarence Betz of the finance committee, who, as secretary of the fire board, also signed the fire board communication.

Chairman James Hupp of the Orinda Planning Committee stated that the church trustees are "looking ahead to the fuure" and that the land in mind "involves that part that goes uphill beyond Fellowship Hall."

The library group's plan for a library building was approved in a letter from the Community Church's Board of Trustees. The Orinda Library is now housed in the church, in inadequate quarters.

Court Upholds Krainz' Refusal To Issue Permit

Superior Judge Hugh Donovan Wednesday ruled the county has a right to enforce lot size minimums in residential zones through refusal to issue building permits.

Donovan's ruling was that County Building Inspector Rudolph Kraintz acted properly in denying to Don Lawrie, Lafayette contractor, permission to build a third dwelling on a 1.37 acre parcel in a half-acre minimum zone on Irvine Drive, Orinda.

Lawrie had asked Kraintz to show cause why he (Lawrie) should not be issued a building permit for a third house on the acreage.

Lawrie failed to receive County Planning Commission approval of a land use permit for the three houses and then secured building permits for two dwellings on opposite ends of the parcel, it was stated.

He then sold parcels of both lots totaling five-tenths acre to a third party and was denied a permit to build a third house in the center of the parcel, it was added.

Since the filing of Lawrie's suit, the county board of supervisors have passed a law prohibiting issuance of a building permit for any property which becomes a legal lot by acquiring land which would reduce neighboring lots below zoned minimums.

Tickets On Sale Next Week for 'Highway' Dinner

Tickets for the cocktail party and steak dinner which the Orinda Chamber of Commerce will stage at Orinda Willows April 21 to honor state and local highway officials will go on sale next week at three Orinda places—the American Trust Company, the Fiesta Hut at Brockwood Road and Moraga Highway and Ned de Laveaga's Chevron station.

This was announced yesterday by De Laveaga, chairman of the Orinda chamber's committee arranging the event.

De Laveaga is the chamber's representative on the board of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, which asked the chamber to sponsor the dinner.

"The gathering will celebrate completion of the Interchange," De Laveaga said. "In that respect, it will be a 'preliminary' to the May 14-15 Orinda Fiesta."

Cocktails will be served at 6 p.m. Dinner is scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

Being invited are state highway commissioners and engineers and their aides, county supervisors, and representatives of the county road commissioner's office and the Interchange contracting firm, Frederickson and Watson.

Tickets are $4 each.

Fire Board Hires Wayne Littlejohn

The Orinda Fire Board has retained Wayne Littlejohn as architect for preliminary sketches of Fire House No. 3.

The action came March 24 at a board meeting.

Wesley Jackson, a lieutenant in the fire department, was approved to fill the new post of assistant to Fire Inspector William Koch.

Jackson was recommended by Fire Chief H. E. Wyatt.

The board also discussed plans to move Fire House 1 from its present location (see separate story).

Littlejohn is to prepare the sketches for the new fire house, which will be located at the corner of Honeyhill Road and Via Las Cruces.

The plans will be submitted for approval to the governing board of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, under an agreement made with that body by the fire board when the land was purchased from the church.

State TB Group Names Orindan

An Orinda resident, Dr. John L. Gompertz of 21 Santa Lucia, has been elected vice-president of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Dr. Gompertz, a chest physician, has an office in Oakland.

He has been a director of CTHA since 1952. He was named to the state position at the tuberculosis group's anual convention in Los Angeles recently.

Judge Rules Against Permit For Cemetery

A Superior Court judge has overruled a demurrer in which the county and the Roman Catholic Archbishop of San Francisco defended its contention that a land use permit for a cemetery on the old Haviside Ranch on Reliez Valley Road is legal.

The board of supervisors and the Archbishop have 10 days in which to file an answer to the judge's ruling in a further effort to prove the permit should be allowed to stand.

Meanwhile, an alternative writ of mandate blocking development of the cemetery has remained in effect.

Neighbors of the cemetery site have objected to its establishment on the basis that it would create traffic and would injure the rural atmosphere.

Superior Judge C. C. McDonald of Yolo County overruled the Archbishops' and county's demurrer.

School Parking Area Is Open

A newly-paved parking area back of Orinda School went into use Monday morning.

Accommodating about 30 cars, the lot was paved to avoid wet weather hazards and to relieve congestion at the front of the school according to Superintendent of Schools Joseph Sheaff.

The area, some 88,000 square feet at the southern end of the school property, was paved last week by William Lance of Moraga, contractor.

Cost was $1847.

Sleepy Hollow Play Area May Open in Summer

A 54-acre play area may be opened this summer by the Sleepy Hollow Recreational Association.

Nearly 200 residents of the Sleepy Hollow area attended a meeting at Orinda School March 24, at which time the proposed development was explained. About 300 families are eligible for membership.

Ernest S. Starkman, president of the association's board of directors, said the cost of initial facilities is estimated at $73,000. This includes purchase of the land near the end of Van Tassel Lane, a swimming pool, picnic area, bathhouse and parking lot.

The project will be financed through the sale of memberships at $250 per family and maintained by annual dues, Starkman said.

Sixty-two families took out membership applications the night of the meeting.

Starkman said the board members "have some hope of opening late this summer." Another board meeting was held Monday night.

The recreation area is 1200 feet from the nearest house, Starkman said, in telling steps to protect residents of the surrounding territory.

'Rec' District Group Will Be Named Monday

Donovan DeWitt promised President Robert Boyle of the Orinda Association Monday night that he will suggest a committee next Monday night to "start the ball rolling" toward formation of a park, recreation and parkway district for Orinda.

Boyle requested him to suggest the members for such a committee after DeWitt had reported briefly on various kinds of recreation districts which could be formed.

The board will hold a special meeting at Orinda School at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

"A commtitee," DeWitt said, "should consist of representatives of the Orinda Mothers Club, the Orinda High School Mothers Club, the improvement associations, the school board and other groups."

He said a park, recreation and parkway district is favored by himself, Chairman Robert Harrison of the Orinda Association's civic center, park and recreation committee, William Penn Mott Jr. and Randy Cook.

Such a district would have five directors, he said, and could levy a tax rate up to 50 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Schools to Have Pre-Easter Week Of Vacation

"It's April Fool's Day and happy as a fool are we ! ! ", joyously exclaim all the kiddies and teenagers of both the elementary and high school districts of central Contra Costa County.

The reason? Why, obvious . . . No school all of next week; the annual Easter vacation is with us again.

Dubiously pleased parents and free frolicking kids look forward to a sunny pre-Easter week.

The Suburbs Are A Long Way Out

Where, oh where is Orinda?

According to "House Plus Home," the $1 slick magazine published by Time, Inc., "Orinda, California, (is) an outer suburb of San Francisco . . ."

Other than that broad description, the magazine should please most Orindans.

It says that Orinda, "fighting to keep the rural atmosphere which causes most people to move there, is adopting the most highly restrictive zoning code in California—and erhaps the nation. The action has the earmarks of being the start of a new trend."

Sheriffs, Employees Associations Strongly Oppose Brown's Aide Request

Sheriff Harry A. Brown's recent request for the establishment of a "Chief sheriff's aide" position to be personally appointed by him without regard to civil service, is being met with considerable opposition from the County Deputy Sheriff's Association and Employees Association.

In a letter to the Board of Supervisors Monday the Deputy Sheriff's group declared that the "present system of competitive examination has proven itself to be the most successful for filling a position or promotion within the department."

THE COMMUNICATION signed by Deputy Sheriff William Faulkner, added, "One of our primary objects is the support of a strong civil service program."

"The association believes that such an appointment would be detrimental to the morale of the regular members of the sheriff's department," the letter concluded.

Arthur Holstein, president of the Contra Costa Couny Employees Associaion, said Wednesday that his group supports the Deputy Sheriffs Association in its opposition to creation of a position outside civil service.

"THE EXECUTIVE committee of the employees association will write a letter to the board of supervisors reaffirming its stand in favor of following civil service procedure for all non-elective jobs," Holstein said.

Tuesday Sheriff Brown by letter requested the deputy sheriffs to reconsider their opposition to his proposed appointment of a "confidential captain" and said he considers the appointment necessary to keep faith with the voters.

"During my campaign I told the voters and you exactly what I proposed to do if elected," the sheriff stated. "Do you believe I was resoundingly elected for any other reason than that the citizens believed I would carry out my promises to modernize the sheriff's department?"

BROWN QUESTIONED the association on modernization, "Is it achieved by placing a new hat on the rack or is it the result of regrouping of basic services and the addition of new services to meet the needs of the community?"

As counter to the association's objection to the "captaincy" as a threat to morale, Brown said, "Recently I had a chance to observe at first hand the integrity of many employees in this department and their devotion to civil service. The county merit system ordinance forbids electioneering.

"I am therefore at a loss to explain or understand how some members of your organization ignored these rules; if I am to accept at face value your protest that competency and integrity can be found for the asking within civil service eligibility lists.

"SURELY THIS IS a new service representing closer integration in our rapidly expanding community, and one that has not been defined by civil service. In actuality the sheriff's aide is a new position meeting a well defined administrative need," argued Brown in conclusion.

On March 11 Brown also asked for the abolishment of the undersheriff's job now held by Albert Aljets and the creation of a juvenile division and four captaincies—one to head criminal investigation, another for patrol, the third to head the jail and prison farm. The fourth is the "confidential captaincy" being so strongly opposed.

County Plans Mass Anti-Polio Shots If Salk Vaccine Proves Effective

Plans to inoculate first and second grade students in the county with the Salk polio vaccine have been made.

The free inoculations will be given the week of April 18 if the Salk vaccine is licensed for use by the United States Department of Health.

A DECISION on whether the vaccine will be licensed is expected to be made April 12.

Representatives of the County Health Department, school districts, public health nursing, medical association and the County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis met Tuesday in Martinez to set up the program.

Mrs. Alline Macomber, executive secretary of the Contra Costa Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said that in order for the series of three shots to be completed during the spring school term and prior to the beginning of the polio "season," it is necessary for plans to be made in advance.

Letters explaining the program, with a consent card, were sent home Wednesday to parents of all first and second grade children in the public, private and parochial schools in the county.

PARENTS REQUESTING the shots for their children were to return the signed consent cards today.

Said Mrs. Macomber, "Only those children who have consent cards on file will be considered when scheduling the inoculations. When the number of children to be vaccinated is known, arrangements will be made for location of the clinics and for medical personnel and volunteers required."

The vaccine will, if licensed, be available free only to first and second grade children, through the National Foundation. Some supplies are expected to be available through usual commercial channels for purchase by patients of private physicians, Mrs. Macomber said.

She added families wishing to get inoculations for other than the first and second grade children should consult their private physician.

DR. HENRIK BLUM, County Health Officer, said Tuesday the vaccine will not be used "unless it is approved by the world-wide authorities who have been conducting tests over a period of months."

Mrs. Edna Selley of 2114 San Miguel Drive, Walnut Creek, has assumed leadership of volunteers needed to assist in the prospective vaccine program for the elementary schools in the county.

Mrs. Selley asked that persons wishing to volunteer their services should call YEllowstone 4-7168 or contact their area March of Dimes chairman.

Funds for purchase of the vaccine will come from the March of Dimes. The vaccinations will be under the direction of Dr. Henrik Blum and Dr. Beryl Graham, assisted by local doctors, nurses, school officials and parents.

Vagrant Admits Ogden's Theft

Three ladies' slipover sweaters have been returned to Ogden's Tween Togs after the arrest and conviction of a vagrant.

According to the county sheriff's office, James Blankenship was arrested recently on vagrancy charges in San Pablo.

Pittsburg police and County Sheriff's Inspector Ray Stoffels, questioning the man on other counts, produced from him an admission he had shoplifted the sweaters from Ogden's during the week of March 21-25.

Blankenship is now serving a sentence in the county jail.

A spokesman in the sheriff's office said, "The victim (Ogden's) had been unaware of the loss."

Bird Watches Fools' Day Gags

"It's 20-20," Orinda's weather bird replied when asked what the season's rainfall total is.

He added, "So are my eyes. Had them checked yesterday. Have to watch that, you know some dodo bird might try to play an April Fool's gag on me."

He flapped away, peering around corners, lifting garbage can lids and watching behind him.

The 20.20 inches total for the season was brought up by .23 inch of rain that fell over the week.

Here are the high and low temperatures:

'Dragnet' Finds One Lost Boy

Bobby lost himself for awhile, but he found a playmate.

One recent Monday afternoon, 4½-year-old Bobby Bartlett went out alone to play. His mother, Mrs. Fred Bartlett of 278 Glorietta Boulevard, couldn't find him an hour or so later.

She looked, checked with neighbors, called the sheriff's office. Her husband was notified. He called the Orinda Fire Department. Pacific Gas and Electric crewmen joined the search.

Mothers and older children in the neighorhood responded.

He was found, late in the afternoon, playing Cowboys and Indians on a hill with a new-found friend, Gary Lillard, near the Lillard home.

"He didn't get a spanking, but he got a good talking to," his mother said. She wants to thank all those who helped her find Bobby.

Planning League Praises Work of Emergency Group

Directors of the Planning League of Contra Costa County March 14 extended a vote of thanks to the Emergency Committee for Master Planing of Contra Costa County.

At the monthly league board meeting at President Ed Rowland's home on Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette, the Emergency Committee was complimented on the effective manner in which it organized and conducted the planning rally at Acalanes High School March 10.

The league directors stated:

"THE PLANNING LEAGUE of Contra Costa County was organized over two years ago to promote intelligent planning in Contra Costa County. Activities have included research, study and anlysis of all phases of planning and, more specifically, the appraisal of actions and progress of county planning officials.

"The progress in developing a comprehensive general plan for the county has been painfully slow. Some lack of understanding and proper direction in the county planning program has been apparent.

"The league has endeavored to correct this situation but has met with limited success.

"ORGANIZATION OF the Emergency Committee was an encouraging sign that some residents of the county are becoming aware of these conditions and are prepared to take action.

"A monumental task faces this group if it is to effectively inform the general public of the serions consequences which may be expected if an intelligent comprehensive general plan for Contra Costa County is not developed and effectuated in the immediate future.

"The league offers its wholehearted support to the Emergency Committee and any other group which advocates and is prepared to work for intelligent planning in Contra Costa County."

Naval Hospital Kids Need Those Books!

By LARENE BLUMENFELD

Most of you know of Marianne Righetti's work with the Red Cross.

Recently, Marianne was transferred to the Pediatric Ward in the U. S. Naval Hospital in Oakland.

After working with these children for several weeks she noticed that the books available for the children to while away the long hours during their hospital stay have become pretty tattered and torn.

WHAT A WONDERFUL gesture it would be if every home in this area with children were to donate at least one child's book to those children in the Naval Hospital!

Dee, Steve and Mike, young fry at the Blumenfeld house, volunteered readily to giving up one of their books.

Why don't you make the proposition to your little ones?

YOU'LL NOT ONLY be helping out the sick children at the hospital but teaching your own a very basic, valuable and importan lesson in life — that helping those less fortunate than yourself is usually quite painless and brings much self-satisfaction and happiness.

If you wish to help Mrs. Righetti with this project, drop off a book at her home, 3261 Rohrer Drive, Lafayette. Her phone number is ATlantic 4-4752.

Any book that would appeal to children from infancy to 12 years would help this crusade along.

Doyle Introduces Mental Health Bills

(Editor's not: A recent newsletter from this district's assemblyman, Don Doyle, contained comment on mental health services. The following are excerpts from his letter).

By DONALD D. DOYLE

I have introduced two bills on mental health which will benefit our present state program.

The often misunderstood term "mental hygiene" refers not only to the efforts to treat and prevent over a hundred different kinds of emotional and mental illnesses and deficiencies, but also to a wide variety of activities aimed at the conservation of mental health.

This means that mental hygiene deals with conditions that are kaleidescopic in their manifestations and with a multitude of agencies and professions concerned with the health and social welfare of our people.

MENTAL ILL HEALTH, in the broadest sens eof the word, constitutes the number one health problem of the nation, in terms of both human suffering and economic cost.

The causes of these afflictions are manifold, not simple.

Efforts to mitigate these conditions are being made on many fronts, but they are often diffused and at best end with identification of the problem, because insufficient mental health services are available where people live for treatment or rehabilitation.

Association for Retarded Children to Meet

The Contra Costa County Association for Retarded Children will meet at 8 tonight in the Orinda Community Church. The public is invited.

Orinda Here and There . . .

By ORINDA MOTHERS CLUB LIBRARY MEET

Thirty students from the Orinda School's seventh and eighth grades made up the largest group in attendance at an all day meeting of over 500 junior and senior high school students who are interested in becoming student library assistants, at the University of California March 12.

Main purpose of the meeting was to organize student library assistants into an association for Northern California.

Officers were elected for the coming year, and the association will in all probability become a very active one, if it can be judged by this initial reception.

AUTHOR TALKS

In the morning meeting held in Wheeler Auditorium, the students and school librarians attending had the pleasure of hearing Doris Gates give a fine talk, "I'd Do It Again."

Besides being a successful author of eight books for young people, Miss Gates proved herself a successful speaker, for she held her audience enthralled.

She told of her own experiences in school, how she finally chose to be a librarian and to do that work with children, and how her working experiences led her to write for the children she knew, and so she became an author.

She gave credit for all her adult success and all the other wonderful things that have happened to her as an adult to her "moment of decision" when she decided to become a children's librarian.

TOURED, TOO

The Orinda students were chaperoned by Mrs. Alice Frederick, the librarian for the Orinda School District. They enjoyed the brief tour of the University library and all expressed gratitude at hearing Miss Gates. Many had a chance to meet her and to get her autograph.

The students lunched at the university cafeteria, then returned to see a film, "A University in Modern Times," which was followed by their organizational meeting.

MacDonalds Will Move to Kentucky

Saying their Lafayette goodbyes are Mr. and Mrs. Colin MacDonald of Mildred Lane, who are moving to Lexington, Ky., early this month after a 3-year stay here.

Mrs. MacDonald was guest of honor recently at a surprise going-away pary at the home of Mrs. Robert Meunter of Lafayette. Cohostesses with Mrs. Muenter were Mrs. Howard Hamilton and Mrs. Leonard Mahler. The other guests included Mesdames A. J. Hollister, William Reed, J. B. French, David Fink, Clifford Rudden, Robert Brackett, A. J. Hagerty, Dan Osborne and Patrick Finn and the guest of honor's mother, Mrs. Henry J. McCracken of Carmel, and sister, Mrs. Oscar Fernandez of Mexico City, both here for a visit before the MacDonalds move.

College 'Who' Lists Local Man

Arthur Dull of 879 Acalanes Road, Lafayette, is among 15 senior students at the College of the Pacific in Stockton listed this year in the national directory, "Who's Who in American Colleges."

Dull, a mathematics major, was chosen for his participation in the student affairs council as well as his current position as communications commissioner.

Preston A. Jones Return from Nassau

The Preston A. Jones' of Lafayette recently returned from a three weeks' trip by air to Nassau in the Bahamas, stopping en route at New Orleans, Miami, Jamaica and Puerto Rico.

Around Orinda

By BEVERLY HOYT, CL 4-5233

Mrs. Harold Salitz of Whittier, California was a house guest for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Stewart.

QUICK CHANGE

They never should have left Orinda! Nancy and John Russell moved from Orinda to their new home at Diablo Country Club after Christmas and the next day John was transferred to Honolulu. What a shock that would be, to say the least!

Now that spring has arrived, most Orindans find themselves out in the garden every weekend, preparing the ground, putting in the necessary plants, bushes, trees, etc., before the real warm weather sets in.

As most of you have found, that dirt is mighty hard to turn over and it runs into quite a tedious job.

PARTY MOOD

But we still haven't lost our mood for parties.

Recently a neighborhood party was given for the Robert Bloomfields who are moving to Nova Scotia.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kallam and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Shampley hosted. Guests included Messrs. and Mesdames Neil Calderwood, Mark Trapanese, Donald Simpson, Peter Panella, Kenneth Hoffman, Stan Stanley, Antoney Ivanevich, Thomas Kling, Ben Singer, and Paul Arenson.

CRUSHED HOPES

We understand that a certain Orinda teacher has given up hopes of signing with a major league baseball team.

Last week while demonstrating his prowess to the future DiMaggios on the local diamond, a wild pitch intended for home plate and a double play missed its mark when a fire alarm box suddenly got in the way.

Such excitement! The entire student body marched out. Rumor has it that this teacher is now taking up ping-pong.

Contractors Meet In Walnut Creek

Over eighty members and guests of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County met March 23 with the newly appointed Assistant Director of the Federal Housing Administration James C. Belda, the district director Richard W. Briggs; Frank Barnhart, chief underwriter; Ben Byrnes, chief of the architectural division and Jack Tuggell, chief of the appraisal depratment to discuss the operation of the FHA and problems affecting the home building industry.

Jack Tuggell, chief appraiser stated that the FHA could not accept County Health Department approval for septic tank construction as the FHA Sanitary Engineer was required to make the necessary tests and inspections himself prior to the approval of the subdivision.

Frank Barnhart, Chief Underwriter, urged builders to consult with his department in regards to problems in layout of subdivisions as frequently problems which might be eliminated could be done so in a preliminary stage.

Raymond H. Lapin discussed the mortgage money outlook for 1955 and stated that the volume of homes constructed would be determined by the mortgage money available as it appeared there was a large number of people desirous of purchasing homes at the present time.

Garry Grover, Lafayette, president of the association presided at the meeting and presented certificates of membership and code of ethics.

TV Fills Hours Of Relaxation

It's time for a break.

Our researchers have been busy asking other people about busy things such as planning, zoning and work, work, kork.

THIS WEEK THEY decided to ask about those hours when time is something to be filled, instead of used.

The question: "On weekday evenings, do you prefer to watch television, listne to the radio, go to the movies, read a book, play chess, or what?"

Television again proved its overwhelming popularity.

ANSWERED MRS. Emile A Pierre of 213 Overhill Road, Orinda, "Look at television." She mentioned "What's My Line?," "Craucho Marx," "I Love Lucy," and "Playhouse of Stars" as her weeknight favorties.

"Generally we look at TV, either that or read a book," said Norman Pressley of 16 Hillcrest Drive, Orinda. He added, "I haven't been to a movie for three years."

Mrs. William G. Magrath of 1040 Dolores Drive, Lafayette, said, "We watch television and we read books." Asked what she prefers, she answered, "Television."

"TELEVISION — especially the fights," answered Bertram E. Evers, 3676 Happy Valley Road, Lafayette.

Maisel Realty Firms Merge

Announcement was made recently of a significant merger of several large Bay Area real estate organizations. These organizations, K/R Homes, Inc., K/R Maisel, and K/R Peninsula have been working together for the past five years, and in the interests of serving the Bay Area home buyer more effectively, they have now actually united under the banner of K/R Maisel.

K/R Maisel is currently handling probably the largest volume of residential real estate of any similar organization in the entire nation. The planned total sales for the year 1955 is $75,000,000.

Thirty-year-old Fred Maisel, the man who heads this acitve organization, has made quite a name for himself in the real estate world. He has been in the real estate business for a scant two and a half years, and has built up a truly phenomenal success story for such a short time.

Maisel and his wife have established their home in Walnut Creek and are taking an active part in that East Bay Community.

In speaknig of the merger of the K/R group, Fred Maisel said, "A great part of the success of our organization is due to the very capable work of my associate, Kenneth Richardson, who is now chairman of the board of our firm."

NIGHT WALK

It is always wise to use extra caution when walking at night. If you're walking along the highway, walk on the left side facing into the oncoming traffic. Wear or carry something white, something that will reflect the light and be easily seen. And always assume that the driver just can't see you.

Jaycee Prexies Have Discussion On Fluoridation

Presidents of 23 East Bay area chapters of the California Junior Chamber of Commerce met at El Nido Rancho, Lafayette, Monday night to discuss plans for coming events in District 3, which includes all of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

Main topic was fluoridation.

The group heard Daniel Collins of Oakland outline action taking place to enable the residents of areas served by the East Bay Municipal Utility District to vote on the issue.

He explained that the reluctance of the directors to explore the issue without a precedent made necessary the introduction of a bill in the State Assembly to set up voting procedures in the matter.

THIS BILL, No. 525, will come up before the Assembly during this session. It is being jointly sponsored by Assemblymen Donald Doyle and Thomas Caldecott. The Oakland Junior Chamber of Commerce was instrumental in obtaining its introduction.

The group also heard from the Martinez chapter that Martinez had fluoridation and lost in in an election a short time ago. A warning to keep alert in the face of organized opposition was issued.

On a local, state and national basis, the Junior Chamber of Commerce is committed to support the fluoridation issue. Collins is chairman of the Oakland committee. He said:

"THIS IS AN ISSUE that should have been resolved a long time ago. Most younger people, especially those with children, are in favor of it, for the obvious advantages it provides for children's teeth.

"In the demonstrated benefits it has shown and the proven facts that it is not poisonous or dangerous, it remains for groups like ourselves to educate potential opposers of fluordiation action and to disperse false rumors regarding it."

Also discussed was the formation of an East Bay Public Relations Council, primarily to promote a public service television forum on general and local problems of this area.

The meeting was hosted by the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce. President Bob Hickey presided.

Robert Lancaster To Be Soloist with Diablo Chorus

The Diablo Valley Choral Group under the direction of Nicol Snell have selected their guest soloist for their forthcoming 13th Annual Spring concert at Acalanes High School April 30.

Guest soloist is Robert Lancaster, bass-baritone from Alameda. Lancaster is well known in the Bay area for his fine performance with the San Francisco Symphony chorus the past several years. He has also sung with Pierre Monteaux conducting, as soloist in the Berlioz "Damnation of Faust" and been soloist in the Opera House performance of "St. John Passion" of Bach and "Missa Solemnis" of Beethoven.

Winner of the Atwater Kent award in 1949 he also appeared with the University Extension Chorus directed by Madi Bacon. Lancaster will sing with the Choral group in a special arrangement of Jerome Kern numbers as well as sing two groups of solos.

Tickets are 75 cents and may be obtained at Pillsbury's Stationers and Reilly's Music Store, both on Main Street.

Statistically, your chances of having an accident serious enough to cause a disabling injury are about one in 15, according to the National Automobile Club.

Scientists Hear Lecture on Helpful Prayer

"The greatest power in the world is God's love for man," said D. Archibald Carey who spoke recently under the auspices of First Church of Christ Scientist, Walnut Creek in the church edifice.

He spoke on "Christian Science: How scientific prayer can help you," and he was introduced by Mrs. Claire K. White.

DR. CAREY SAID he saw no reason for conflict between science and religion. "If science is based upon an honest search for truth; if religion deals with the truth about God and man, why should there be any conflict between them?"

Such an understanding of prayer has unlimited potentialities for improving human affairs in all fields of endeavor, including relations between nations, as well as in the natural sciences and in business, he said.

AS THE STATESMEN of the world more consciously accept God's guidance and make more effective use of scientific prayer," he said, "we shall find the justice of Principle and the tender helpfulness of divine love bringing peace and security and progress to each individual and to all mankind."

"As those in the business world are governed by God through scientific prayer, how the brotherhood of God's children will find expression in respect for the freedom of individual progress!", Carey concluded.

A BLOWOUT!

Concentrate all your steering energies on the job of holding the car on a straight line down the center of the road, and letting the drag of the blown tire act as the braking power, serve to slow the car down to a safe speed.

When the car is going slow enough, and you feel that you have complete control, then, and then only, should you begin to apply the brakes and apply them with caution.

Remembering these things when a tire blows out, may very well save your life.

Region Speaker Finals Are Tuesday

Regional finals in the Lions Club Student Speakers' Contest will be held Tuesday at 7:15 at El Nido, Lafayette.

William Rupley, Orinda Lions Club and local zone winner, will compete against students from Lions Zones 2 and 3.

THEY ARE Jeffrey Horner, senior at Berkeley High School, and Barbara Hermann, senior at El Cerrito High School.

Lions Deputy District Governor Walter Eisk of El Cerrito will officiate at Tuesday's contest, hosted by the Lafayette Lions.

The regional finals were advanced when word was received from district officials that the regionals had to be finished by April 10, according to Lou Repetto of the Lafayette Lions.

AMONG THE invited guests are District Governor and Mrs. Bab Simontacchi, Cabinet Secretary and Mrs. Jack Merchant, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wright. Wright is District 4 chairman of the Student Speakers' Contest.

Young Rupley, senior at Acalanes High School, earned the right to compete in the regionals by winning the March 22 zone contest over club winners from Lafayette, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek and Danville.

A $1500 cholarship awaits the District winner. That contest will be held in June and will include winners from sub-district finals, which will be held among regional winners May 14.

Tuesday's contest will take the place of the regularly-scheduled April 12 meeting of the Lafayette Lions. Balloting for th local club's new officers will be held after the speaking contest.

Diamond Service Emblems Awarded

Diamond emblems for 25 or more years of service were given recently to several employees of the Tide Water Associated Oil Company at a dinner in San Francisco.

Those honored included L. D. Carey of Lafayette, D. M. Matheson of Walnut Creek and A. H. Ainsworth of Pleasant Hill.

Acalanes District Plans New Site

The Acalanes High School District trustees decided to ask the public to okay and authorize the district to borrow up to $600,000 from the state for the primary purpose of purchasing an additional school site or sites.

The proposal will appear on the ballot May 20 in the same election which features contests for trustee offices.

DISTRICT SPOKESMAN DESCRIBED the $600,000 proposed loan as a "long-range economy move." Trustees explained that more school sites are needed to keep up with heavy population growth and rising high school enrollment. "As the area grows the value of the land increases while the avaliability of suitable school sites diminishes," District Superintendent Neil M. Parsons stated. "Allocation of funds from the state would allow the district to buy suitable sites now, before residential development swallows them up and further improvements raise the value of available property to excessive limits," Parsons declared.

Trustees emphasized that while they may borrow up to $600,000 the actual loan may be less and that any funds so authorized by the voters and not used for the purchase of sites migh be used in the future for building purposes, if and when the district becomes eligible.

IN OTHER ACTION ACALANES District trustees approved teacher salary adjustments for 1955-56, raising the minimum for regularly credentialed instructors to $4000 with maximums of $6150, $6500 and $7000 per year depending on training and years of experience. According to the school board the adjustments place the Acalanes District in a favorable position with other school districts assuring, "continued procurement of qualified teachers."

The board commissioned the school architect to draw up plans for an additional classroom wing and a girls playfield at Las Lomas and insrtucted the architect to make a study and recommendations for expanding the Las Lomas gym to include auditorium facilities.

Always give clear signals when you're about to turn or stop in driving, advises the National Automobile Club. By avoiding confusion you will avoid collision.

Brown's Civil Defense Plans To Be Aired

A meeting to consider Sheriff Harry Brown's request for a separate County civil defense department outside his department has been rescheduled for 4 p.m. Tuesday.

The meeting, among Brown, the County Board of Supervisors, County Administrator Desmond Teeter and Harry Stoops, coordinator for Region III of the State office of Civilian Defense, was originally scheduled for last Tuesday.

Teeter was unable to set the meeting up with Stoops for that time, however, and the new date was arranged, according to Mary Smith, assistant clerk of the board of supervisors.

Brown recommended March 22 the board consider taking civil defense out of his department and setting it up as a separate entity with a full-time director and full-time assistant director.

Christian Science

That spiritual understanding of God brings freedom from the futility of materialism will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality" at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street. Walnut Creek.

Selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include hte following from Jeremiah 2:5). "Thus saith the Lord, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?"

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the following passage will be among those read: "The perfect Mind sends forth perfection, for God is Mind. Imperfect mortal mind sends forth its own resemblances, of which the wise man said, 'All is vanity' "(2:39:29).

The Golden Text is also from Jeremiah (4:14): "O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain throughts lodge within thee?"

NIGHT DRIVING

Driving at night has certain problems, one of which is headlight glare. Don't attempt to reduce the glare of oncoming traffic by wearing sunglasses, warns the California State Atomobile Association. They will reduce your vision below the safe point. Remember, sunglasses are for sun, not headlight glare.

Easter Seal Drive Gathers Impetus

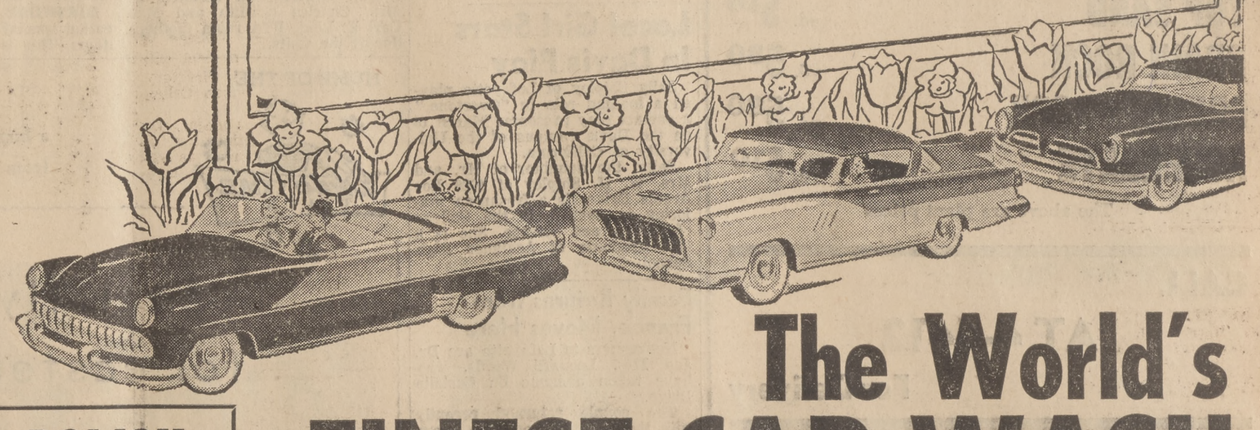

Returns during the early part of the Easter Seal campaign sponsored by the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Contra Costa County indicate residents are responding favorably to the appeal, according to Duncan A. Currie and Merle Brown, treausurer and co-treasurer of the campaign.

However, they state contributions must arrive at a continued steady rate to reach the quota of $25,000, which has been set by the society as adequate for the needs of the chippled children and adults of the county.

Jim Dana Wins Jaycees' Prelim Speaking Contest

The preliminary contest conducted by the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce to send a speaker to the District 3 Bay Area speaking contest of the State Junior Chamber of Commerce was won by Jim Dana of Orinda.

The subject of the "speakoffs" locally and in the quarter, semi-finals and finals is a phrase from the Jaycee creed. That creed is.

"WE BELIEVE:

"That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life:

"That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations;

"That economic freedom can best be won by free men through free enterprise;

"That government should be of laws rather than of men;

"That earth's greatest treasure lies in human personality;

"And that service to humanity is the best work of life."

DANA CHOSE the subject of human personality.

He will represent the local group this month in Oakland in competition with 20 other locals in the East Bay area.

BULLY FOR YOU

We would like to offer our congratulations to each and every person connected with the senior play, from star to janitor, for the great success they made of "Night of January 16."

All were happy to hear "Karen Andre" alias Pat Camp was declared innocent of the murder of Bjorn Faukner.

More congratulations should go to Sue Panella who has been chosen to represent us this year at Girls State.

Sue, along with girls from all the high schools in California, will take part in a junior size democratic system of government. The affair will take place in Sacramento and will last for a week.

GRAB 'EM

One glorious evening of dancing in the arms of the men of their dreams will be available to all girls who get on the ball and grab a man for the Rally dance April 15.

Red Jones is big man of the affair and will be backed up by Marcia Miilu and her publicity gang.

Bud Dodge supervises decorations, Eric McKinley gathers some music and Bob Owens cleans up the big mess afterwards.

MISS 'R'

Filling Miss Lahti's place as girls' dean next year will be Miss Richardson. Miss "R" as she is fondly called by the Acalanes inmates, has been here since 1942 as an art teacher and counselor.

At the same time Mr. Ross will go from his job as senior problems teacher and director of guidance and counseling into his new position as dean of boys at the new Miramonte High School.

GREEN HAIR

Right in style with St. Patrick's Day, Karen Hillyard and Mary Palmrose spent the day strolling around school with a streak of bright green hair. Shades of old Erin! Independence Day should be interesting.

As the 2:45 bell tolled denoting the end of this glorious day, there was a mad dash for "OUT." Know why? Easter vacation, of course.

Harry Garcias Given Surprise Housewarming

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Garcia, who moved recently from Orinda to 3235 Judith Lane, Lafayette, were given a surprise housewarming at their new home March 12.

About our happy Country Folks

By Edith Bolman

First the move, then comes the good struggle

The lure of the country—ah, yes—the city kids pack their bags, move to Contra Costa County and commence to struggle with

(1) The unaccustomed sight of soft eyed cows looking in the kitchen window and scaring the daylights out of you,

(2) The argument with the telephone people about getting a phone before you are old and gray

(3) The constant ringing of the door bell by various dairy concerns and dry cleaners

The nice lady who introduces herself as one of your new neighbors and then springs the fact that she is collecting for the Red Cross

(5) The directional phenomena of the ramps off Tunnel road and figuring out which one to take in order to get home instead of Rick's Drive Inn.

Ever fascinating but as one newcomer has said, the people are so friendly it is hard to find time to unpack.

Introducing . . . some newcomers from everywhere

New comers—the Paul Frinklins jr. with Jeffrey and Paul Jr. (must be the third) have come from Los Altos to settle down in Sleepy Hollow on Ichabod Lane.

On Sleepy Hollow Lane the John Edward Legros family (sh-the s is silent) with John Jr., Tom and Dick after a two year stay in New York with the Shell Chemical Corporation. Having previously lived in the East Bay they are mighty glad to be back.

From Japan, Hong Kong and Manila to Ardilla Road come Colonel and Mrs. Daniel Chapman.

Also Lieut. Commander and Mrs. George W. Penebaker with son Rod who is in the seventh grade at Orinda School and, arriving this summer, son Artie who is finishing his schooling in Pennsylvania.

During Commander Penebaker's recent duty in Korea Mrs. Penebaker was assistant to the producer of a network show on WCAU TV in Philadelphia doing set and costume design—so what does she do when she moves to our area—becomes a decorator with the William Simpson Company of course.

Accent's on the accent this time

And then there is the question of how do you live all over the country with out getting an accent.

We knew someone once who flew over London and got off the plane with a British accent—but not so a new resident who previously lived in the west, the south, the middle west and most recently in New Haven, Conn. All we could detect was the merest touch of New England. Rabbi Joseph H. Gumbiner with his wife and daughter Abigail are living at Bien Venida because of an assignment with the Hillel Foundation at the University of California.

Coming from Yale University there are obvious differences which necessitate a rearangement of thinking such as:

1) At a state university there is no religious incorporation with the actual administration, so the work is carried on as a separate unit, 2) at Yale, no girls—so the activity is changed from the strictly cultural and religious to include such social goings on as dances, brunches and supper parties. 3)Also coming from an organization of 4000 students to our mammoth operation of 15,000 obviates an adjustment of sights. All this coupled with the fact that Rabbi Gumbiner is president of the National Association of Hillel Foundations, requiring tutelage of a national scope, is quite a challenge.

From Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Stolley to a new home on Crest Road in Lafayette. Stolley is with Shell Oil Co.

OnAvalon Court the George McMeans with George, Andy and Susan from Claremont, Calif. Same old deal—when they moved in it was raining like mad and they were just about ready to move back to Southern California but ever since the weather has been divine so Northern California has won over a confirmed Southern Californiac.

Mr. McMeans was in charge of the Kaiser Steel plant at Fontana and has been transferred to the head office in Oakland.

Newcomer on Miner road—a cold number who settled on a mud flat surrounded by an undressed wire fence.

But fear not—before long there will be lovely landscaping to combine with the existing magnificant view and the cold number will warm up in the shimmery, summery sun. The Eugene Shurtleffs can hardly wait—the cold one is their brand new swimming pool.

Home from a canners' convention in the East—E. H. Nelderkruger and William Foster.

Flowers that bloom on the hats

Contrary to information given out rather freely by Messieurs Gilbert and Sullivan to the effect that "the flowers that bloom in the spring tra la have nothing to do with the case" (Mikado), the flower that blooms on the hat of the lucky bird wearing it very definitely has quite a bit to do with the case.

The flower appears on the hat which appears on the lark which appears on the tally which will appear at the forthcoming "Salute to Spring" party to be staged by the Lark unit of the Diablo Therapy Center, April 12 from 12.30 to 5 p.m.

Dessert, coffee or tea followed by any card game in the following homes:

Mrs. Lynn Stanley with Mrs. Sibly Jellett and Mrs. A. Warburton co-hostessing. Mrs. Paul Marchant with Mrs. W. Racine, W. Underhill and L. Capra. Mrs. Tom Grewe with Mrs. R. Klitgaard and A. Farrell, Mrs. Richard Graves with Mrs. N. Sondag, G. McAuliffe, A. Westlund, and K. Ingraham (why so many there—house must be a whopper). Mrs. Donald Fibush with Mrs. M. Vittaly, W. Barrows and W. Brasch.

Mrs. Robert Hoedel with Mrs. K. Hallstone and M. Boevers. Mrs. Louis Barnum with Mrs. R. Thompson, W. Coffey and R. Fairbairn. Mrs. William Harris with Mrs. P. Springman and Mrs. E. Niederkruger, Mrs. James Shierry with Mrs. R. Ligon and Mrs. G. Powell. Mrs. Terry Jacobson with Mrs. J. Tessler and Mrs. W. Simpson.

Want to know who designed the birdie tally? Mrs. Clayton Herman. To date, 352 have been made by Mesdames W. Barrow, L. Capra, F. Dees, T. Grewe, R. Hoedel, D. McIntyre and K. Welch.

That is all.

Club Planning First Party In New Church

Tickets are being sold for the first party to be held in the new Santa Maria Church Hall.

The Santa Maria Women's Club will present "Blossom Time," a dessert bridge and canasta party, May 26 at 12.30 p.m.

Mrs. Harry Miller is general chairman. Assisting are Mesdames Leo Lemire, William Thurlow, John Guerin, Anthony Markus, Antone Ivanetich, Richard Gould, Joseph Fazio and W. J. Talbot.

Tickets are $1.50 each and can be obtained from ticket chairman Mrs. Guerin, CL 4-4995; Mrs. Miller, CL 4-2663, or from other members.

The new church, completed last December, is on the hill directly back of Orinda School.

G.O.P. Tea Draws Large Gathering

A large gathering of Republican women heard Mrs. Marjorie Benedict, Republican national committeewoman from California, speak at the spring membership tea of the Orinda Republican Women's Club March 17 at the home of Mrs. T. M. Harrer, Seven Oaks Circle.

Mrs. Benedict had just returned from Washington, D.C., where she was one of 20 women who attended a breakfast with President Dwight Eisenhower.

Mrs. Benedict is the official hostess for the 1956 Republican National Convention in San Francisco and she spoke briefly of the plans for the event.

Mrs. Frank Hart and Mrs. Haywood Gathings were co-chairmen of the tea and had a committee composed of Mrs. Kendric Morrish, hostesses; Mrs. James Irwin Jr., serving; Mrs. Charles L. Smith, refreshments, and Mrs. Dorothy Lamb, decorations.

Tree Planters

As their way of saying "thank you" for having a meeting place, members of Girl Scout Troop 36 planted a pink locust tree at the Orinda Community Church March 14.

Mrs. Channing Kilburn is leader and Mrs. William Hanford, co-leader.

The planting was done by Susan Starkman, Betsy Ann Kilburn, Allison Hanford, Sharleen Mossotto, Susan Hammond, Diane Vastabend and Holly Borden.

The girls thank those who bought cookies from them, which made it possible to buy the tree for the church.

Choir to Give Spring Operetta

The 60 members of the Junior Choir of the Orinda Community Church are continuing a 3-year tradition this spring in their presentation of the operetta "Hansel and Gretel" in the Orinda School auditorium, on Saturday, April 30, and Sautrday, May 7.

This production is an enlarged version of the first efforts of the Junior Choir in the field of music-drama for children, presented in the fall of 1951.

Subsequent productions have been "Sleeping Beauty" and "The Nutracker and the Mouse King."

The music for "Hansel and Gretel" is adapted from Humperdinck, and the operetta is under the direction of Margaret Popovich, music director of the Community Church.

The performances of the operetta are traditionally under the sponsorship of the Clipper and Shipmates Clubs of the Community Church. The club members spend much time on staging, lights, sound, tickets, costumes and publicity, in sponsoring what has proved to be a successful fund-raising venture for the church and a creative experience in music-drama work for the youngsters.

Morrow Successor Committee Elects Phelps Chairman

Ralph Phelps was elected chairman Sunday of a pastoral committee to screen candidates for a successor to the Rev. Fred Morrow of the Orinda Community Church.

Mrs. E. C. Drews was elected secretary.

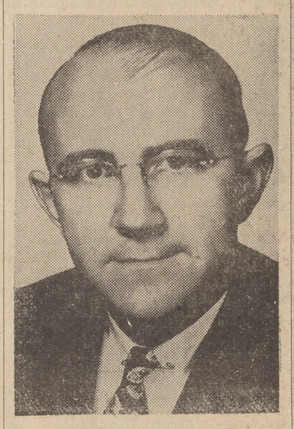

Other committee members are Fred N. Twining, Mrs. DeLoss Winkler, William Penn Mott, Everett Howe, John Ogden, Mrs. Elizabeth Laurenson, and for the young people of the church, Douglas Krotz.

Mr. Morrow has announced his intention to resign at some time during this year.

The pasoral committee, he said, will get a list of possible candidaes from Dr. W. D. Pratt, superintendent of the Northern California Congregational Conference, San Francisco.

The group will screen the candidates, narrow the list down to one and make a recommendation to the congregation, Mr. Morrow said.

He added the committee is on a "standby" basis, and will make final recommendations for a successor as soon as Mr. Morrow resigns.

One More New Road

Orinda's master plan doesn't show it, but there's a new road in these parts, getting much use.

Where is it? Well, right now it's just a path connecting the homes of J. L. Gates, Douglas C. Richards and Al Winsor, fronting on Irvine Lane.

It's used to let neighborhood kids go from place to place without going onto the street.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Community

The mixed joy and pathos of Palm Sunday will be reflected in the worship of the Orinda Community Church Sunday at 9:30 and 11 a.m. services.

Jack Biersdorf will assist the Rev. Fred Morrow at both services, with Marena Hewitt at the organ at the first hour and Daniel Popovich at the second, at which the chapel choir also participates.

ENDING A SERIES of lenten sermons, the minister will speak on "The Port of Home." The anthem is Goldsworthy's "On Palm Sunday."

The adult Bible discussion continues at 10 a.m. under the leadership of Mr. Morrow on the Gospel of Mark, Chapter 7. Graded lessons are offered in the Sunday School for all ages from nursery through maturity.

At 7 o'clock Sunday evening there will be a Church membership information panel in the Livingstone room for all enquirers and prospective members. Howard Dail and Douglas Watkins will assist the minister in the panel.

THE CHAPEL CHOIR will be assisted by bass soloist Henry Sheffoff in presenting the major portion of Dubois' "Seven Last Words of Christ" at the church's annual candlelight Maundy Thursday Communion Service at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The music will be followed by the impressive service of Confirmation and Reception of members, and by the simple apostolic form of the Lord's Supper, led by the Rev. Fred Morrow.

The sacred elements will be distributed by the deacons of the congregation.

"Pint-size" refineries help us keep gasoline prices low

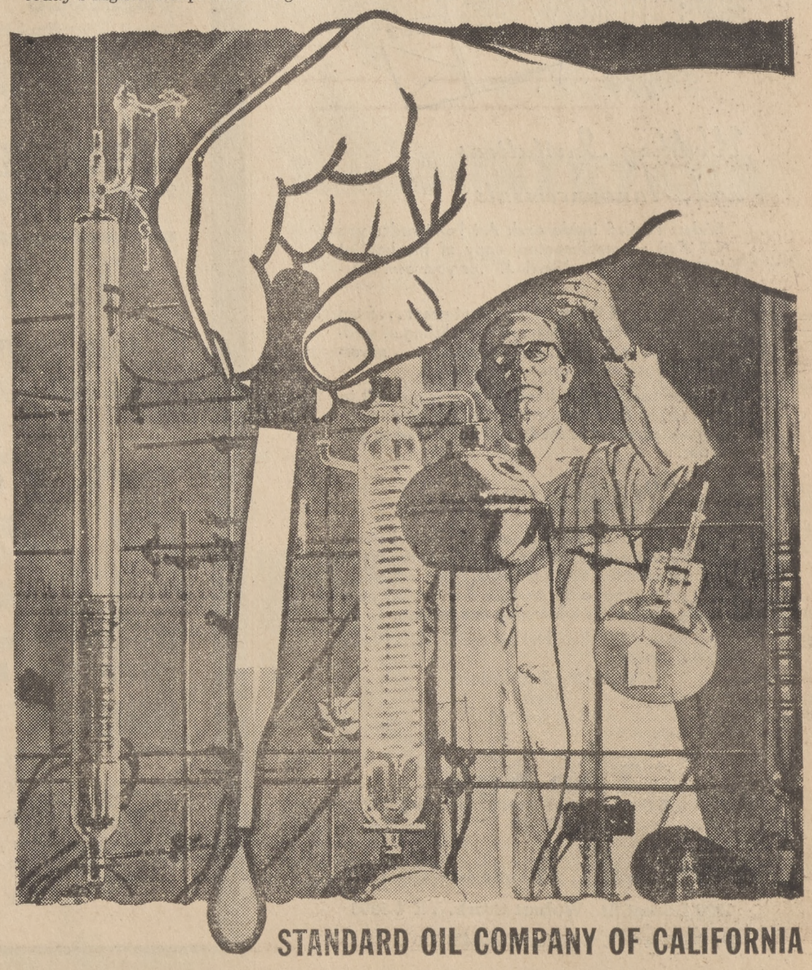

Folks who like a bargain don't have to look any farther than the gas tanks of their cars. For despite a steady increase in quality, gasoline prices have remained low—and Standard Oil Company of California's table-top refineries are one good reason why.

They are pint-size laboratory pilot plants that enable our scientists to develop cost-cutting manufacturing methods for each new gasoline before we put it into production. With the aid of these rubber and glass forerunners of multi-million gallon refineries, we've worked with car manufacturers to perfect balanced gasolines designed to bring out more efficiency and economy from today's higher compression engines.

We've learned how to squeeze more gasoline from crude oil and we've found ways to make increasingly better gas at consistently low prices. Today's gasoline, for example, is 50% better than motor fuels of 1925, yet costs just a few pennies more.

The combination of research and competition has held gasoline prices down so effectively that they've advanced only 17% (ex-taxes) since 1925 while general living costs are up 52%. Even though our pint-size refineries make gasoline by the drop, they are one reason why Standard products give you a longer run for your money.

Standard plans ahead to serve you better

'Spring Fling' Will Mean Fun-- And Scholarships

Letters have gone out to University of California alumni of the Diablo area inviting them to attend a "Spring Fling" to be held Friday night, April 15, from 9 to 1, at the I.D.E.S. Hall on Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

The dance has been planned by the California Alumni Scholarship Committee for the Diablo area, headed by Dr. Arthur Lundblad of Orinda.

It has the sponsorship of some 100 prominent California alumni of Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville, Concord and Pleasant Hill.

LAST YEAR the committee's scholarship drive resulted in the awarding of three $300 scholarships to as many outstanding graduates of the three high schools Acalanes, Mt. Diablo and San Ramon.

This year, with graduating classes coming up at Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill high schools as well, the job of providing scholarships for needy and deserving students is even greater.

The committee hopes to exceed last year's goal with the profits from this dance, and at the same time to provide California alumni with an entertaining evening and an opportunity for a real get-together.

DR. BEN DYKES, general chairman, has engaged the popular band, the "Debonairs," for the informal dance. Admission is $2 per couple.

Tickets can be secured from Donald Reichert, 1053 Laurel Drive, Lafayette, whose telephone is AT 4-4322, or from any other committee members, including Dr. Lundblad, Mel Arighi and Clint Hallsted, Orinda; Stan Massie in the Moraga area; Pat Newell and Dave Stewart, Lafayette; Bob Gilfillan, Burt Hoover, Laura Odell and Kathryn Taylor, Walnut Creek; Dykes and Margaret Harper, Alamo and Danville; Art Bloom and Bobbie Lytle, Pleasant Hill; Betty Courtney and George Nielsen, Concord.

The Floral Arrangement Tea and fashion promenade of the Flamingo Unit of the Mount Diablo Therapy Center Tuesday was "A terrific turnout! Couldn't have asked for more.", according to Mrs. R. A. Schimmel, publicity chairman.

The beautifully exciting arrangements of the 30 participatng groups and the splendid job Joseph Magri did with the fashion show made for a day that was well worth the efforts of President Mrs. James M. Turner and General Chairman Mrs. Norman Gibson and all the hardworking members of their Flamingo Unit.

Judges were Edward T. Foulkes, president of the Oakland Garden Show; Mrs. Howard Thomas, past president of the San Francsco Garden Club of Forest Hills and Mrs. Edward C. MUSICAL — Alamo Women's Club, Garden Section, using the theme "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree." The arrangement was a brilliantly designed miniature tree of lovely apple blossoms beneath which were sitting two petite figures of a man and woman.

After the judges had completed their difficult but delightful task the public then chose in each classification a popular arrangement, not including the three already awarded sweepstake winners.

Popular winners were:

Native Daughters Initiate Five At Gala Fete

Last week's meeting of Las Amigas Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, held at the Walnut Creek Women's Club, was a special occasion for the members.

Several weeks ago, when the Grand President of the Order, Miss Doris M. Gerrish, was visiting she expressed the wish that every Parlor in the State would adopt the clogan "5 for '55," and that if each reached that goal, by the time the Grand Parlor convened at Stockton in June, a very substantial gain in membership will have been realized.

At Wednesday's meeting, the officers of Las Amigas Parlor initiated their five new members, being the first in the county to reach the goal

NEW MEMBERS are Mrs. Myra Tagg, Mrs. Edna Curtis, Miss Roberta Serpa, Miss Joyce Emslee and Miss Janet Bush.

To make the occasion complete, members were honored by the visit of several distinguished guests, among them being Mrs. Sallie R. Thaler, grand secretary, Aloha Parlor, Oakland; Mrs. Edna Williams, grand trustee, Sequoia Parlor, Berkeley; Mrs. Alice Shea, grand outside sentinel, Presidio Parlor, San Francisco, as well as their Deputy Grand President, Mrs. Dorothy Zanussi from Las Juntas Parlor, Martinez.

The following two events are being spotlighted by the members in the immediate future and an extensive campaign is being launched for their success.

MRS. VIRGINIA Beeston, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported everything in readiness for the Parlor's "Luncheon Is Served," a program for Women's Groups, to be sponsored by the Parlor April 27, 12:30 at the Women's Club. The luncheon will be open to the public.

A benefit for the Native Daughters' Children's Foundation project will be given May 25 and the Parlor chariman of that State-wide committee, Mrs. Phyllis Iverson, has announced that "Miss California," a beautiful 24-inch walking doll is to be the center of attraction. The Parlor's Sewing Club is cooperating by making an entire trousseau for every occasion for the doll. Proceeds will be sent to Grand Parlor to further the work sponsored by the order for needy or handicapped children.

Everyone enjoyed a social hour at which delicious refreshments were served by the social committee headed by Mrs. Ethel Donald.

Prep Track Meets Will Be Held Today

Knights Capture Double Victory In Track Meet

The cindermen of Las Lomas track coaches Merril Callow and George Deklotz proved to be winners as they showed great improvement in their second outing, against John Swett of Crockett and St. Vincent's of Vallejo.

The meet, held at the Crockett oval Wednesday afternoon, bound the Walnut Creek contingent sweeping to a win in the varsity meet by scoring 74 points to John Swett's 31 and St Vincent's 10.

In the Bees the margin was pretty much the same, with Las Lomas having 88 points to Swett's 40 and St. Vincent's 2.

LAS LOMAS won the meet by virtue of copping 20 first places and tying for one other in a total of 26 events. School records were set in nine events.

John Westlund went on the record book with a 2:09.7 in the half-mile.

In the Bee 1320 yard run Pete Weckerle set a new tops when he stopped the clocks at 1:31.6.

IN THE MILE run Mike Edminister, running for the first time in the four-lap event, joined the record-breakers with a 5:02.

The varsity relay team, consisting of Rick Ostrom, Bob Karlsrud, Don Ogden and Gary Wingett, set a new time in winning the baton-passing event with a 1:36.2.

Al Stover hit a new high with a 43-foot, 4-inch heave on his last try in the shot put circle.

STONER SET another mark when he threw the discuss for a winning distance of 120-feet, 4 inches.

In the varsity pole vault Ken Ogden tied with Mark Vanderpool at 10-feet, 4-inches in so doing, broke the old school mark.

John France was a double Bee winner in the shot and discuss and set a new mark of 4 feet, 3-inches with the 8-pound shot.

The other record winner was Bob Bryan, who leaped 5-feet, 6-inches, to take the high jump.

Ram Thinclads Beaten by Squads Of Diablo High

The Pleasant Hill Rams brought their track squads to the Diablo oval last Friday afternoon and when the final relay had been run the Rams had lost the varsity meet 61-52, while the Bees went down 75-38.

In the varsity encounter, Diablo was out in front 56-52 at the relay, which meant that with the relay went the meet.

Diablo copped the event in 1:38.3.

THE RAMS, showing great improvement over earlier showings, came out with a pair of outstanding performances when their surprising sophomore miler, Wes Mallay, copped the four-lap event in 4:52 and teammate Charlie Green soared 10 feet, 10 inches to take the blue ribbon in the pole vault.

The Rams were off to a fast star tni the meet, sweeping the opening event, the 120-hard high hurdles, with Phillips, Rupprecht and Robinson finishing in that order.

Other Ram first place winners were Phillips in the 180-yard low hurdles, Leyendecker in the 880 and a tie by Green in the high jump.

IN THE BEE events Diablo simply had too much quality and quantity, although the Rams did cop six events.

Foshaug won the 75-yard dash and the 150-yard event. Milliam was anohter double winner, taking the discus and tying in the high jump.

Copperfield was tops in the shot, while Ipson won the broad jump.

By Erwin Mattson

FROM RESULTS IN THE MEETS to date, it hardly appears possible that anyone is going to stop the Pittsburg Pirates from taking the varsity and Bee track titles come county meet time.

The Acalanes Dons and Diablo Devils were the only two with enough experience and depth to possibly stop them, but the Pirates look to have too much in quality and quantity.

The lone hope of stopping the Pirates from a clean sweep of the varsity sports calendar lies in baseball, which looms as a close and tight race.

EVERY TEAM has a top pitcher that could defeat any other club on a given day.

Coach Charles Eaton at Acalanes has a tough row to hoe in track, having lost a great deal of strength via graduation.

He does have some outstanding individuals, however, and enough depth to defeat a good number of teams.

While Pitt has the No. 1 spot sewn up, a great race could develop for the runner-up position between Diablo and the Dons.

One of the Aaclanes standouts is the sophomore sensation, Larry Pilcher, who toured the 440-yard dash in 51 flat March 18 against Pittsburg.

Larry is one of those picture runners who at times appears to be too relaxed for top effort. The fact is that relaxation is the secret of a top performer. Relaxation brings top performance, due to efficient muscular action without an excessive drain of energy that brings about quick muscular fatigue.

In a recent race Coach Bob Lord thought he ran too slow the first 220, until he discovered that the clock showed 23.6, which is good enough to win many meets in the 220 event.

IN ORDER TO achieve good 440 time, one must run then keep driving. At one time the 440 was considered a distance event but that's no longer true, or it is really practically a sprint if one is to achieve top-ranking status.

Short-legged and stockily built Larry has developed fine form, and a bright future could lie ahead.

WORD ON Don Ferrarese, the former Acalanes Don who is currently with Baltimore in the major league training camp at Daytona Beach, Fla., has arrived.

In a recent outing he hurled four innings of shutout ball against the Brooklyn Dodgers and apparently had things well under control.

BARBARA STARK has returned to Acalanes after a brief stay in the East, where she put in some training on her swimming.

Barbara failed to make the team for the Pan-American games but will be out to redeem herself in the Nationals to be held in Florida this month.

She is defending backstroke champion.

Down Stanford Way two Don graduates of last year are making strong bids for top berths on the track squad.

Ray Williamson is doing his stuff in the iron ball event, as is Jim Hart. Jim is also heaving the discuss.

The shot is of the 16-pound variety, instead of the 12-pound ball used in high school, with both around the 47-foot mark.

Hart is reported to be around 150 feet with the college discuss.

Bob Borghesani hit the news recently when he hurled the San Jose varsity baseballers to a win.

He threw the first four innings right-handed, then changed to the port side for the final three frames of the seven-inning nightcap.

In addition, he pounded out two hits.

Bob yielded five runs in the opening inning, then settled down to throw shutout ball.

William Winter Will Talk Here

Subject of th talk, "Future of the United Nations," will be based on information gathered in visits to Paris, Cairo, Jerusalem and Rome.

The Acalanes and Diablo Chapters of the United World Federalists are sponsors of the Winter appearance.

Reservations may be obtained by calling Mrs. W. L. Yager, CLifford 4-4045, or Mrs. Janet Glading, MUlberry 2-2137. Admission is 75 cents.

Dons Beat Rams 3-0 in Baseball League Opener

The Acalanes Dons, behind the shutout three-hit pitching of their ace righthander, Dick "Red" Jones, won their league opener at the new Pleasant Hill diamond March 24 when they copped a 3-0 win.

In racking up the win over the Rams, Jones whiffed 13.

The Dons garnered but five safe blows themselves but managed to have a big inning in the fourth, when they scored all their runs.

THE FIRST MAN up in the fourth, Rich Markstein, went down on a strikeout. Then Jones singled and Jerry Coakley doubled, to put two on.

Andy Fadelli, the slugging catcher, came to bat next and he proceeded to hit a line drive down the first base line that found him ending up on third, with two runs in.

Andy came in when the Rams' shortstop, Ray Robb, booted a drive off the bat of Alan Sutton. Ron Nelson had walked but was tagged out at third as an attemped steal, and when Jim Dinkel grounded out, short to first, the inning ended, and with it the scoring for the day.

THE RAMS had the Dons in hot water on two occasion, in the first and fifth innings, but Jones pitched his way out each time.

In the opening frame there was one down and the bases were loaded. Jones struck out the next two batters.

In the fifth, two were on and one away. Jones struck out the next player at bat and retired the side when Ed LaFountain flied out to Paul Miller in center field.

Acalanes Trackmen Split with Encinal

The Acalanes varsity track team came through with a top effort last Friday afternoon, including two new school records, to turn back Encinal of Alameda 71½-1½.

The Don Bees were not as fortunate, dropping by the wayside by a 75 1/3-37 5/6 count.

In the varsity meet the Dons copped 10 first places to insure victory.

Highlight of the afternoon was the record-breaking 440 won by Larry Pilcher, the Dons' sophomore sensation, who ran the one-lap event in 50.8, just .3 of a second off the county mark.

Larry jumped to the lead from the start and steadily pulled away from the pack to breast the tape yards in front of everybody.

His time is the best in Northern California to date.

THE OTHER RECORD was set by the Dons' Jack Kuenzel, who ran a remarkable 880, to stop the clocks at 2:02.5, which is good time in anybody's league.

Other first place winners for the Acalanes team were Butch DeVillers in the 100 (10.4), Terry Ashe in the 220 (.23), Jim Sweet in the high hurdles (15.8) and in the low hurdles (21.4) and DeVillers in the broad jump (21 feet 1¾ inches).

George Coad and Vic Johnson tied at 11 feet 6 inches the pole vault and Jon Palmer took the shot put with a heave of 46 feet 6 inches.

The Don quartet took the relay in 1.34.4

In the Bees, Pete Dahlstrand was top point getter, winning the 75 (:8.2) and the 150 (:16).

Las Lomas Loses CSD Track Meet

The Las Lomas track team opened the 1955 season last Friday and set two new school records in the process, only to be defeated by a narrow 55-58 margin by the California School for the Deaf.

It is a matter of record that the Knights were out in front in the Berkeley meet by a 55-53 score when the final event, the relay, came up.

The California School for the Deaf won the event in 1:37.4, and with it went the meet.

LAS LOMAS school records were set by Al Stoner, who lopped the discus with a 115-foot heave, and by Don Ball and Don Ogden, who ended up in a three-way tie with Ray Colletli of California School for the Deaf at 5 feet, 8 inches in the high jump.

Another first place winner for the Knights was Bob Karlsrud, who took two firsts—the 100-yard dash with a 10.6.

In the pole vault Jim Symington tied for the top spot with CSD's Jim Decker at 9 feet.

Pirates Scuttle Knight Nine 8-3 In League Opener

The Las Lomas Knights crossed bats with the Pittsburg Pirates in a Diablo Valley League opener March 24 and, after the regulation seven innings of play, found themselves on the short end of an 8-3 score.

The game, played at Pittsburg, found Coach Tony Knap starting with his No. 1 thrower, Johnny Weekly, on the mound.

Weekly proceeded to justify Knap's confidence by hurling no-hit, no-run ball for the four frames he worked, with only 12 men facing him at bat and seven of those going down on strikeouts.

Richard Hernandez took over from Weekly in the fifth but didn't fare so well, as the Knights collected three runs on three hits.

THE PIRATES were in the scoring column quick. They scored two runs in the first on three singles and a walk along with an error.

The Pirates added two in the third and three in the fourth, to go out in front 7-0.

In the top of hte fifth the Knights shook off their early stage fright and scored a pair of runs.

Jie Silva singled to left and then Pitcher Hernandez walked three in a row, to score Silva.

Ron Fifield received credit for an RBI when he singled to right, scoring run No. 2, only to get thrown out at second when he tried to make second.

THE KNIGHTS' other run came in the sixth when Steve Cook singled and came home as a walk and hit batter forced him to third, from where he came on in via a fielder's choice.

That made the tally 7-3, and it was 8-3 when Pitt scored a single run in the bottom of the sixth.

That's the way it ended, as Las Lomas was retired without scoring in the top of the seventh.

Pitt had nine hits to the Knights' three. Las Lomas committed two errors, to none for the winners. Stanley went the route for the Knights on the mound.

Foley Resigns As Gael Coach

Thomas A. Foley, head basketball coach at St. Mary's College since the 1950-51 season, resigned this week from his job with the Gaels, effective May 15, and announced he is retiring from athletic coaching.

The popular coach, who is a resident of Walnut Creek and a graduate of Notre Dame, said he has a number of Bay Area business offers he is considering.

Brother Thomas, president of St. Mary's, reported yesterday that the college's Board of Athletic Control has accepted Foley's resignation with regret. He added that a successor will be chosen within two weeks.

Ram Nine Stages Rally to Defeat Panthers, 3-2

In the only Diablo Valley League baseball game played Tuesday, the Pleasant Hill Rams put on a two-run seventh inning rally to cap their initial league win at the expense of the Antioch Panthers by a 3-2 score.

The games scheduled between Las Lomas and Diablo and the Pittsburgh Acalanes teams were postponed due to wet grounds.

The game, played at Pleasant Hill, found the visiting Antioch nine taking a 1-0 first inning lead and the Rams coming back to match it and tie the ball game up at 1-1 in the third.

ANTIOCH NOTCHED run No. 2 in the fifth and held on to the lead until the bottom of the fatal seventh.

Things looked black for the Rams when the two first batters were retired in order, but things came to life in a hurry when Bob La Fontane drew a walk and Dick Egan doubled to center putting La Fontane on third.

Bill Nixon was safe on an infield error and La Fontane scrambled home with the tying run.

The big moment came when John Black, next at bat, hit a nifty single to right, to wind up the old ball game 3-2 as Egan rambled in with the all-jmportant run, to end the game 3-2.

Ray Johansen hurled the first six innings, with Egan relieving in the seventh for the winners.

Antioch had but two hits to the Rams eight.

Big stickers were the Ram's Egan, with a single and double in four times at bat, and Nixon, with a pair of singles.

Knight Tennis Men Beat Swett

In a tennis match with John Swett High at Crockett March 22 the Las Lomas Knights, under Coach Jim Schwartz, copped a clean sweep win when they took two singles and two doubles.

In the top singles play, Dick Overstret defeated Ted Baer 6-2, 6-4.

In the second singles, Roger Snyder dropped Ray Bittner 6-1, 6-4.

In the first doubles, Overstreet and Snyder won 6-3, 6-0, while in the No. 2 doubles Roy Ray and Jon French rounded out the afternoons' play with a 7-5, 6-3 win.

Don Horsehiders Whip Alhambra's Bulldogs by 6-2

The Acalanes horsehiders copped their third straight practice win of the season March 22 when they rapped the Alhambra Bulldogs 6-2 on the local diamond.

Lefty Mike Barrett hurled the first five frames for the Dons and received credit for his second win of the season.

Red Jones threw the final two innings, with Barrett yielding three hits and Jones 2.

Alhambra scored a lone run in the first on a pair of errors and added another in the third when Centerfielder Tourville was on by an error and scored on Catcher Rose's double.

The Dons scored one in the first, one in the second, two in the third and two in the fifth and bagged 10 hits over the route, with Ron Nelson getting three for three on a double and two singles.

Don Racquetmen Nip Bulldogs

The Acalanes tennis team made a clean sweep of it when it walloped the Alhambra Bulldogs on the local courts March 22, 5-0.

In the first singles, Acalanes ace Dave Baldwin stroked to a 6-1, 6-0 win over Gary Jones.

In the second singles, Ron Huffaker defeated Ken Swenson 8-6, 6-0.

In the first doubles, Terry Ashe and Morris Bergesen took the nod, 6-3, 6-0, and in the second doubles Bob Steuben and John Hall won over Dan Million and Ray Scheur 6-0, 6-4.

In other doubles play, Doug Krotz and Jere Patterson defeated John Talt and Rich Harbrecht, while Bill Deubner and Bob Steuben trimmed Larry Cooper and Bill Stamps.

School Vacation Next Week Slows Sports Schedule

Today the track teams wind up the initial phase of the spring sports schedule, and that's all for a while, as the prep athletes and coaches take a rest over Easter vacation.

The big meet today is at Pittsburg, where it's a four-way affair, with Pitt, Las Lomas, San Ramon and Pleasant Hill taking part.

Pitt figures to win in both divisions with its power-laden squads, but the meet could turn into a merry race for the runner-up spot.

IN THE OTHER local track meet today, the Acalanes Dons host the Diablo Devils in a great traditional.

Diablo is the heavy favorite in the Bees and holds a pre-game dope edge in the varsity on the basis of depth but not so great that the meet is decided.

SOME GREAT times are expected in the various event, as both teams are possessed of outstanding individuals.

The surprise will be if some records don't fall by the wayside.

All track meets are set for 3:15 p.m. starting times.

The SUN's Eighth Annual Spring HOME GARDEN Edition

Dwarf Trees Have Delicious Fruit

Californians take to gardening naturally. California's weather and topography seem to inspire in nearly everyone a yen to become a gardener.

To keep apace with California's gardening activity, orchardists have developed dwarf deciduous fruit trees that may be grown in very small space and with great ease of cultivation.

In addition to their small space requirements, so ideal for limited size gardens, the dwarfs produce excellent fruit. It is hte same size as that produced by full scale trees and just as delicious in flavor.

AND YOU CAN select dwarf trees from varieties of dwarf citrus, apple, pear, peach, apricot, plum, bush cherry, and semi-dwarf cherry.

In reparing for planting, dig large holes. (Your nurseryman will suggest the proper size.)

Fill in with good topsoil around the roots. Fertilizers and manures are not recommended, for they are likely to burn the new roots.

LILIBET 1954 All-America Rose Selections award winner, an origination of Howards of Hemet. This dainty new floribunda is named to honor the beautiful princess who has become Queen Elizabeth II of England. Bouquets of pleasantly fragrant, clear pink blossoms . . . and compact dark green foliage make Lilibet an ideal rose for hedges, borders and bed planting.

Climbing Roses High in Demand

Eye-filling and soul-satisfying is the beauty of the rose. And what is more, this beauty can be had in so many varieties and forms—hybrid teas, floribundas, polyanthas and the lovely climbers.

Climbers have been widely planted for years.

The climber Paul's Scarlet is one of the most popular.

Blaze, which is an everblooming flower, is well known and favored too.

When you go to your nursery to make climber selections, you will find a number of favorite rose names in this category.

There are many climbing roses to choose from, individually suitable for whatever location and situation you have in mind—and in a variety of types, too: Pillars, ground covers, sports of hybrid teas.

Apple Trees

A favorite among fruit-bearing trees apple trees can be grown successfully throughout the entire state.

Apple trees have long been chosen, notonly for their fruit, but also for their shade and form interest.

TIFFANY (hybrid tea) an origination of Howards of Hemet, California, 1955 All-America Rose Selections Award Winner. This rose has been named to honor Tiffany and Co. known the world over for unexcelled quality. Tiffany's long tapered buds rise from a golden yellow to a full deep pink and open to hold their color and prize winning high-centered shape in all stages of bloom. Tiffany has an exceptionally pleasing fragrance. Its long, strong stems have an upright habit of growth and a thick foliage of deep green. The plant's vigor and hardiness will keep it green and blooming well into the Fall.

Garden Checklist Offers Several Timely Pointers

1. Begin a regular pest control program for your roses and spray at regular intervals.
2. Now you can plant all types of container-grown ornamental shrubbery.
3. Get your soil properly prepared for planting with the new chemical soil conditioners which make a soil loose and friable for a long time.
4. Apply a balanced commercial fertilizer around your rose bushes every month after they begin blooming.
5. Get after those weeds with the many types of chemical weed killers available — there is one for every situation. But be sure to read instructions very carefully.
6. You will have less trouble with weeds if you plant your new lawn now.

Here's the 'Why' For Dwarf Citrus

It takes only three words to denote the basic attributes of dwarf citrus — "foliage, flowers, fruit."

You may reply: "Yes, but full-scale citrus affords the same features. So why are the dwarfs so outstanding?"

The answer to this one lies in two facts: Dwarf citrus not only provide all the feaures of the large trees but also they provide them in much less time and require much less space in which to do it!

For example, you can buy very young dwarf citrus at nurseries in bloom, or already bearing fruit. With regular citrus you must wait 3 to 5 years for similar maturity!

Flowering Quince -- Truly Obliging

Truly obliging and truly lovely is the flowering quince!

For this shrub is practically indestructible and at the same time very picturesque. There is an Oriental feeling about the branches when out of leaf, and when the shrub blossoms there are shades of white, pink, red, salmon, coral, rose and peach, depending on the variety.

The flowering quince is a deciduous shrub with several growth habits that differ according to variety. Some varieties grow to 10 feet; some spread wide, low, compact — with thorns and without.

Evergreen Shade Trees Serve Variety Of Purposts to Make Garden Attractive

By THE GARDENER

WITH A LITTLE imagination, several of the great variety of evergreen shade trees can be planted throughout your grounds and yards to function in all phases of garden and outdoor life.

Especially appealing for a large area where you and your family will congregate is the Southern Magnolia tree, which provides ample shade.

This evergreen has a 40-foot spread and appealingly fragrant white flowers.

IN A PATIO or beside a pool the graceful weeping branches of the Pepper tree is very eye-appealing.

The Pepper is a rapid growing tree, with gnarled trunks to contrast with its feathery foliage and red winter berries.

The Evergreen Elm is a small tree with bright green foliage growing in a drooping manner. Used for street plantings, it is also ideal for providing shade in the yard of a small home.

VERY POPULAR for street plantings as well as large lawn areas, the Camphor Tree has aromatic light green foliage that is tinged bronze in the spring.

Its strong wood is very wind-resistant and it requires no pruning. Furthermore, the Camphor is adaptable to soil and water variations.

Investigate the possibilities of the many evergreen shade trees by talking with your nurseryman and looking over his selection of these fine shade trees.

DOROTHY DIGS in the garden

To get the best results from your soil, cleanliness is important. LAWN-A-GEN is a soil disinfectant, safe to use where seeds are planted or where plants are in a state of growth, so long as you are careful to water well before treatment.

Wire Worms are responsible for much invisible damage, causing young plants like Asters and Pansies to wilt and die from no apparent cause. You can use LAWN-A-GEN on these flower beds without having to worry about killing the plants, and even the most severe infestation of Wire Worms will go down to defeat under two treatments with LAWN-A-GEN. For general disinfection of soil, one treatment is enough.

Sheila Johnson Will Represent Las Lomas High

Sheila Johnson, Las Lomas junior, has been selected to represent the school at the Girls' State Conference to be held June 22 to June 29 in Sacramento.

Each year, schools throughout the State choose one girl according to the following criteria: junior status, physical fitness, outstanding leadership qualities, excellent character and citizenship, upper third of her class, scholastically, courage and honesty, ability to get along with others.

Sheila has been active in many class and school functions during her three years at Las Lomas. This year as Rally Commissioner, Sheila helped lead the Las Lomas student body to win both the football and basketball sportsmanship trophies awarded by the East Contra Costa Division of the Diablo Valley Athletic League.

Deanna Bovo has been appointed alternate delegate to the Conference if Sheila Johnson should be unable to attend.

Portable Power Saw Has Many Uses in Modern Home Workshop

The portable power saw is one of the tools which contribute most to the versatility of today's home workshop. Ordinarily used to cut wood, it can be equipped with an abrasive disc blade that will saw through metals, masonry and composition materials, according to an article in Home Modernizing magazine. However, goggles should always be worn when cutting anything but wood.

Framing members for a new house can be cut ten times faster with power saw than with hand saw.

Here the saw, with an abrasive disc, zips through a metal pipe.

Tile sewer pipes are sliced off easily with the same blade.

Petunia Resembles Horatio Alger Tale!

Like Horatio Alger heroes, who rose from ordinary backgrounds to a life of great fortune, the common ordinary garden petunia has risen in the flower family from ordinary blooms to elegant forms and colors that today make it a highly prized summer and fall flower throughout California gardens.

After years of hybridizing the petunia, nuresrymen and growers have developed advantages of great form and color variety to add to the established advantages of the petunia — its drouth resistance, love of sun and ability to get along on a minimum of fertilizer.

You can begin gardening with petunias now by sowing seeds and transplanting them when they are large enough, or beginning right off with seedlings available at nurseries.

IF YOU WORK with petunia seeds, mix them with fine sand and sprinkle them over the surface of a soil mix in pans or flats, cover with a glass and keep warm. Make sure the flat or pan has good drainage; and to water, immerse the container in a water-filled pan.

When the top of the soil is moist, remove. This one watering may be enough for the germination — but if it isn't, try to avoid watering from overhead, since the seeds are easily dislodged this way.

Once petunia seedlings are large enough, you may set them out in the garden and lawn borders or in pots and containers, too. Plant in loose, porous soil in a sunny area.

WATER OCCASIONALLY — a deep, thorough watering.

Set the plants 9 inches to a foot apart.

Container-grown petunias require careful watering and regular light fertilizing for abundant blooms.

LL Seniors Stage Dance Tonight

Co-managers Ann Howard and Bob Riegg announced today that plans are well in hand for the "Senior Extra" Dance to be held tonight at the Las Lomas gym. A large crowd is expected to herald the annual Easter-week vacation.

Because the class is on an economy budget, the decorations committee will use old newspapers and music will be provided by recordings.

Senior committee chairmen are Maja Anderson and Tim Schwarzer, theme and decorations; Steve Cook, music; Georgia Brum, refreshments; Derryl DeGuire, publicity and Ron Fifield, tickets.

Edwin Jackson Last Rites Held

Edwin Allen Jackson, 67, retired Army Transportation Corps member died March 25 in an Oakland hospital.

Mr. Jackson was a native of Canada and lived at 1370 Pinetree Drive, Walnut Creek. He was a past exalted ruler of Red Bluff Lodge 1250, and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Danville Post 246, of the American Legion and the Lions Club of Rodeo.

Funeral services were held at the Little Chapel of the Flowers. Burial was in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

He is survived by his wife, Reva, a sister and four brothers.

Nip Those Pests in the --Rose-- Bud!

Spring, when new life begins again, is the most logical time to nip those rose pests and diseases in the bud (rose bud, that is).

At this time of the year the principal pest of the rose, aphid, is in the height of its season and the highest number can be gotten rid of.

Sometimes it takes a daily spraying to keep them under control, for they have a high reproduction capacity.

Other annoying pests are mites, chewing insects, borers and thrips. Most all-purpose insecticides will take care of all these pests.

MILDEW is the principal disease of the rose. It can be controlled with sprays of copper or sulfur fungicide or dusting with sulfur.

It can generally be prevented by choosing mildew-resistant roses, in the first place. There are many rose varieties to choose from which have foliage that is hard, glossy and leathery — in other words, mildew-resistant — rather than soft and dull finished.

Do not regard chlorosis as a disease, for it is a symptom of an iron or zinc nitrogen deficiency in the soil and is characterized by a yellowing of the leaves. Applications of a balanced fertilizer and then sulfur may solve the situation. Water after each application.

ROSE RUST can be partially controlled by spraying with fungicides and lime sulfur, but the best cure is removing diseased leaves on the plant and on the ground at pruning time and burning them.

Diseases and pest problems vary with the area in which you garden.

Your nurseryman will be able to advise you on the most common varieties of rose "varmints and ailments" in your locale and what to do about them.

Perennials Offer Many Varieties

"Infinitely varied in use and adaptability" is a phrase that might well be used in any description given of "perennials." For there are perennial flowers suitable for virtually every Western garden, regardless of soil and climatic variations.

Among the better known members of the perennial family are the English Primrose and the Pacific Giant Delphinium.

English Primrose is the most adaptable and widely planted of all primroses.

Very popular in the delphinium family is the Round Table Series —with familiar names from tales of King Arthur, gracing several varieties.

Old Presbyterian Church Yields Quantity of Material

The old Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church presents a dull empty facade on 1327 Locust Street but upon investigation of the rapidly disappearing church skeleton, the curious will discover it has yet to yield an abundance of saleable materials, quaint and amusing objects and a bit of history.

For one whole dollar, the building was sold by the church realtors to Ralph Trost, house mover of Concord. Having outgrown these old quarters, the Presbyterian group has moved to a new and larger site on 1720 Oakland Boulevard, Walnut Creek. The object now is to sell the lot, 100 foot frontage and approximately 130 feet deep. There is no time problem concerning the sale but first the old church must be cleared away.

Trost has contracted W. B. Franklin and W. F. Taylor, both from Pittsburg, to tackle the job of demolishing the building. Their contract allows them six months, ending September 22, to complete the task.

Only the pictorial stained glass windows and the organ was saved by the Presbyterian Church to be used in the future when a more adequate building is built on Oakland Boulevard. Minus these items and the usual ecclesiastic paraphernalia, though the church looks bare, "it's amazing the abundance of materials we discover each day in our work," said Franklin.

The church's 22 pews and a side wall of sliding doors was bought by the new Pentecostal Church on Texas Street in Anticoh, but there still remains many doors and 80 individual theater seats.

In every room are storage cabinets, desks, bookshelves and in one, an old upright piano, vintage 1929.

The church building will yield 2000 corrugated ceramic roofing tiles, 10,000 feet of hardwood flooring, 10 to 12,000 feet of two by six lumber, three gas heaters and above 1,500 feet of electrcial conduits.

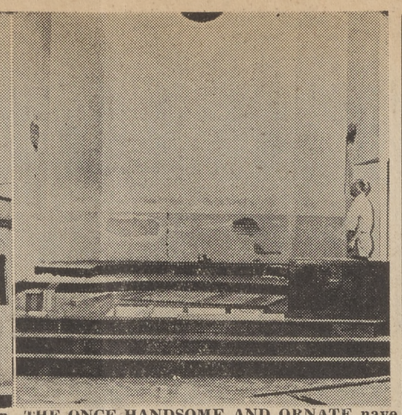

The main building was constructed in 1925; the old rear annex in 1878. The annex contains 18 multi-colored paneled windows of fine workmanship.

From the church will be salvaged literaly thousands of feet of wide wooden sheathing, innumerable electrical appliances, two lavatories with wash basins and even a bee hive, complete with bees, for the more courageous buyer.

As yet no plans have been made for disposition of the lot and the construction of a new building there.

NOTHING BUT THE SKELETON of the old Presbyterian church now stands at 1327 Locust Street directly across from The SUN office in Walnut Creek, but by September the building will be razed with no present plans as to what will stand on the site. —SUN photos by Mattson

THE ONCE HANDSOME AND ORNATE nave of the old Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, now barren and torn, is looked at once more before it is demolished, by neighbor Al Leino of The Paint Blender across the street.

He is also survived by two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Jensen of Walnut Creek and Mrs. Jean Nicklaus of Concord and three grandchildren, Peter, Margaret and Katherine.

Services were held last Saturday at the Queen of All Saints Church in Concord and burial services at Saint Marys, Oakland.

TWO NEWCOMERS

Salt Lake was the loser when two nice families moved to Central Contra Costa recently, according to Greeter Jeanne Madden. Major and Mrs. J. A. Flower are new residents in the Walden area, and the Clyde Robesons are now in Pleasant Hill.

Major and Mrs. Flower have lived many places, including Japan, since he was called into the army as a reserve officer. However, in 20 months he will retire, which is their reason for acquiring a beautiful home here. He has been an agent for Western Life Insurance in the past, and intends to continue with the same company in this area after he is out of the service.

The Flowers exchanged property in Salt Lake City for their new house, and they are very pleased with it and the prospects of making their permanent home here. They have a daughter attending the University of Washington and a son in Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Robeson came to Pleasant Hill when Mr. Robeson was transferred from the Salt Lake to the San Francsico office of the orthwestern Insurance Co. They drove here, leaving the children, girls, 4 and 6, and a son, 8, with their grandmother until a home could be found. Then the children, accompanied by the grandmother, had the thrill of flying here.

REAL NEIGHBORS

Two couples who lived in the same apartment house in Benicia were very close friends. One finally yielded to the urge to have a house and garden of their own and bought a home in Pleasant Hill Manor.

Tha t was too much for the friends, so they bought the house next door. Both families moved in on the same day. They are the Charles Tuggles and the L. Vests. Tugglie is with the Maritime Commission in Benicia, and Vest works in the Benicia Arsenal. They drive to and from work together. A very neat arrangement all around!

GREGORY GARDENS

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin and son, 3, recently came to Gregory Gardens from Columbus, Ohio. Martin is a sales enigneer with the entire western part of the country for his territory. He and Mrs. Martin are ardent devotees of ice skating and feel very fortunate that such a nice rink is conveniently located in Walnut Creek.

Also new in Gregory Garden are USAF Captain and Mrs. J. F. Steen. They moved here after the captain completed a tour of duty in Hawaii. He is now taking special courses at the University of California. They have a son, 5.

Other newcomers in Gregory Garden are Mr. and Mrs. J. Monk formerly of San Francisco. He is with an insurance firm there. The Monks have a very interesting pair of year old twin boys. They are not identical, one being fair and the other dark. Their personalities also differ decidedly, one tending to be an introvert and the other an extrovert.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Harder moved to the Walden area when Mr. Hader was transferred to Oakland. He is the vice president of the Bank of Commerce. They formerly lived in an apartment in Stonestown, San Francisco. They have two sons, 6 months and 2 years of age.

When Greeter Hyacinth Moorehead called on Mrs. R .Kuhn of Walnut Creek, she was met at the door by a delightful 19 month old boy who was in very fine fettle, although this charming young mother was very upset. They had just returned from the hospital where the chil dhad been rushed after partaking of a little liquid refreshment in the form of Hexol.

He showed no ill effects whatever, in fact was very pleased by all the attention and excitement, but his mother could do nicely without such exotic appetites on the part of her son, she said. The Kuhns are from Oakland. Mr. Kuhn is employed by the state.

HAPPY HERE

Mr .and Mrs. Don Richter and their daughters, Betty Louise, 8, and Jeannette, 5, are now living in the Sans Crainte area. Mr. Richter is a native Chicagoan, but his wife originally was from San Diego. However, he has lived in California previously and was very happy when Kaiser Aluminum transferred him to this area. He is in the chemical sales department.

The Robert J. Costas are very happy in their nice new home in Sans Crainte. They were both reared in Oakland, but Mrs. Costa says they love it out here where they don't feel "hemmed in." The fact that Walnut Creek is much more convenient to Mr. Costa's work as a civil engineer in Antioch was an additional reason for coming out this way.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Elliott decided to move from Balboa in southern California to this part of the state where they would be nearer the senior Elliotts who live in Stockton. It was their good friend, Ted Beem, the well-known photographer, who sold them on Walnut Creek. They are very happy that they took his advice for they found an unsually attractive home in a beautiful setting in Lakewood.

Over 100 Attend CD Sub-Council

Over 100 enthusastic residents from the Pleasant Vista sub-council attended the first in a series of four classes in basic Civil Defense March 22 at the Buena Vista School with Kenneth Bailey as instructor.

An explanation of the function of county Civil Defense was given by Matt Hodge, coordinator, and Ted Merry, alternate of the sub-council.

Because of the large class and interest shown other classes will be started at a later date. Anyone interested may contact Mrs. Ben Sheppard, YE 4-7960 for information.

Due to Easter vacation the Tuesday class has been postponed until April 12.

Supper Party Held For 10th Birthday

Fourteen attended a supper party given revently to honor Sherry Hoover on her 10th birthday. A St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out in the decorations and the specially made cake.

Judy Dears, Bonnie Benihoff and Beverly Rand were prize winners in hte games played.. Other guests included Nina Bienhoff, Shirley Rand, Susan Miller, Darlene Harris, Bonnie Clark, and the honoree's brother and sisters, Harvey, Marian, Leulla, Eileen and Jayne.

Sherry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoover of Thomas Lane.

Sports Awards Presented at Pleasant Hill

Varsity basketball letters went to eight Pleasant Hill High School players at the annual basketball banquet, in the school's multi-purpose room March 15. Receiving awards were Ray Johansen, Jim McMillen, Norm Friberg, Bill Nixon, Bob Ritchie, Dick Egan, Fred Cochran and Brian Duling.

Winners of special trophies were Dick Egan, who was named honorary captain for the year; Owen Willis, most improved player; Ray Johansen, most valuable player, and Johnny Weekly, Pittsburg player, most outstanding opponent.

Letters were also awarded to the following members of the Pleasant Hill "B" basketball squad: Bob March, Mike Cereda, Doug Sherbourne, Walt Robb, Dave Derr and Dan Ipson. Robb was named honorary captain of the year for the "B" squad.

Heber Newson, a member of the physical education staff at the University of California, was guest speaker at the event. Other guests included Art Poulin, Pleasant Hill varsity coach; Lyle Palmer, "B" coach; Arthur Bloom, principal of Pleasant Hill, and Roy Schmandt, vice-principal.

Decorating at the banquet followed a St. Patrick's Day theme. Chairman of the food committee was Mrs. Winnie Rupprecht, aided by members of the P.H.H.S. Parents' Club. Decorations were handled by the Girls Service Club and Art Poulin was in charge of the program.

Parkmead PTA Honors Mrs. Odell

For recognition of her services to children and the community, Mrs. Robert Odell was honored with life membership by the Parkmead PTA at their last monthly meeting, March 8.

Mrs. Burton Marliave made the presentation.

The highlight of the evening's program was a speech by Bevins Austin of KQED-TV, San Francisco, concerning "The need for educational television in the Bay Area."

Earl D. Allen, art director for the Walnut Creek School District, who also spoke, chose as his subject, "Children's art in the district."

Program Chairman Mrs. D. R. Greene was assisted by the fourth grade mothers who served as hostesses.

Teachers Think Salaries Inadequate, Citizen's Committee Survey Finds

A survey completed recently showed teachers in the Lafayette School District generally favor an automatic salary schedule, and for the most part feel present salaries are inadequate.

A report on the survey was presented recently at a meeting of the Citizens' Committee for Education. Boardman Moore is chairman. Fred Dietz headed the committee handling the survey.

THE REPORT showed most teachers think community relationship is favorable, and that working conditions are generally good. Several expressed a desire to have more say in the formation of curriculum.

Copies of the full report may be obtained by contacting Dietz or Mrs. Ford Tussing.

In other business March 16, a nominating committee, comprised of Ben Harris, Mrs. Robert Lockey, Robert Suczek, Robert Trask and Fred Dietz, was selected.

HIGH SCHOOL students from three foreign countries studying at Acalanes were guest speakers at the meeting.

Their topic was "Our Elementary Schools."

Charlotte Hradetzky from Austria and Liliane Meyer from Luxembourg contrasted their educational standards with those in America, mainly on the basis that in their countries there is no universal education as we know it here.

In both Austria and Luxembourg, only those students who can pass the stiff comprehensive written and oral examinations can continue on with higher education.

Those students who fail after their second attempt are for the most part absorbed in trade schools.

Both Charlotte and Liliane stated that in order to qualify for the scholarship to come to Acalanes, both had to be straight "A" students and both had to write a comprehensive essay on some topic concerning world politics.

The girls stated clubs in their schools were concerned with matters of world import.

In contrast to Austrian and Luxembourg educational policies, Pavo Vakeva spoke about education in his native Finland, which compares much more closely to that in the United States.

He said foreign languages are a major part of the curriculum, that interest in world politics is not nearly so great among students in his country, and that physical education plays a greater part than in the other two countries.

All the students agreed the teacher-pupil relationship in American schools is better than that in European ones.

THEY LIKE THE local feeling of friendliness and informality, which does not exist in their countries, they said.

Chairman Moore announced the program for the April 20 meeting would be a panel discussion by members of the Discipline Committee on "Discipline in the Home and at School."

PTA Plans 'Fun Fair'

Plans are well under way for the annual Fun Fair of Parkmead PTA to be held May 21 on the school grounds.

The theme of "Hawaiian Holiday" will prevail throughout the day according to Mrs. Willard Williams, general chairman.

In addition to the popular booths of last year, the event will feature a jewelry and used toy booth.

Mrs. W. J. MacDonald has been appointed purchasing chairman for the affair with Mrs. Clarion Wood assisting.

It was further announced by Mrs. Williams that there will be a general meeting of all chairmen and booth chairmen April 13 at 3 p.m. in the Parkmead school library.

To Give Assistance

The Department of Internal Revenue has announced it will have two representatives at the Walnut Creek City Hall Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., to assist the taxpayer.

Safe Driving, Safe Playing Require Effort by All of Us

With spring now here officially as well as climatically, more and more children are playing outdoors.

That's fine—after all, didn't most of us move to this area because it's so healthful for our children?

However, we must realize that springtime brings an increase in the number of accidents where youngsters play in the streets.

The problem must be approached from two viewpoints—that of the driver and that of the child.

Most of us drive carefully through our own neighborhoods, where our neighbors see us; as we approach our own homes, we have a tendency to increase our carefulness.

But in other neighborhoods and communities we're not, as a rule, nearly so careful.

That's a "double standard" which drivers must drop, if there's to be consistency in safe driving practices. We must drive carefully throughout this area, as well as anywhere else.

The need for cautious driving is underscored in our area by the fact that there are very few sidewalks. Drivers must constantly be on the lookout for pedestrians as well as for playing youngsters.

As parents, we have the serious responsibility of teaching our children the essential rules of safety, in relation to vehicular traffic.

We must make sure that our children know how to handle bicycles and tricycles properly in the street—and that they are taught to respect automobiles and to get out of the way of automobiles.

All too often, boys and girls on bikes or trikes on the road hardly budge even though a car or truck is bearing right down toward them. The sudden screech of brakes, the skidding stop—if Lady Luck smiles, the child is unharmed; if not—tragedy or serious injury strikes.

On foot and on bikes and trikes, too many children play in the street when they shouldn't. Too many of them (in all innocence) are not careful enough.

Basically, that's the fault of the parents. By example and by patient explanation, parents can change this situation.

Planners OK Reliez Station To Leland Link

A resolution approving a "back-road" connection between Reliez Station Road and Leland Drive in east Lafayette was adopted Tuesday night by the County Planning Commission.

Before the proposed connection can become a part of the county's General Highway Plan, it must be approved by the Board of Supervisors after a public hearing.

No exact routing has been stated for the connection, but Tuesday's action mean the general path of the proposed connection will be protected, according to Principal County Planner H. Russell Griffith.

The connection has long been sought by local and area groups, including the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation.

Larene Offers Assorted Facts Concerning Jo

Jo Kleinenbroich of 3251 Camino Colorados is The SUN's new neighborhood correspondent from St. Mary's Orchards. She writes the column, "Odds and Ends from St. Mary's Orchards."

The "Odds and Ends" chores have been turned over to Jo by Larene Blumenfeld, until recently the St. Mary's Orchards columnist. Here's what Larene says about Jo:

"JO IS A GRADUATE of San Leandro High School, class of 1943. She majored in art at San Leandro High.

"Her husband, Ken, is the junior partner of Stoll and Hanson, leather and shoe findings, Oakland.

"The Kleinenbroichs have three children: Kenny, 7½; Karol, 5, and Kit, 20 months.

"JO IS A WHIZ with a needle and loves all handicrafts, for which, unfortunately, she hasn't had much time in recent years.

"She was born in Pasadena and was raised in San Leandro.

"Speaking from experience ,getting out a weekly column when you have three small children is no small job. So many of you have expressed how much you enjoy reading the "Odds and Ends" column — you could make the task much easier by calling in news items whenever they occur.

"DON'T FEEL self-conscious or silly about calling — world-shaking events will appear elsewhere in the paper.

"If you have an anniversary or birthday or guests for the weekend or an evening away from home, your friends and neighbors will be interested in reading about it, just as you would about them. Give Jo a ring at ATlantic 3-2124."

Letters to The Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

Sheriff Brown's recommendation that civil defense be removed from his jurisdiction is a sound one.

But to actually set up a separate department for civil defense is not the answer to the main problem and dilemma, namely: There is no adequate defense for the super weapons now stored by East and West, and for the even more destructive bombs now being tested!

THE ANSWER IS in working for a sound disarmament plan, plus Big Four or Big Five talks, and both sides realizing the futility of starting a war which would end in extermination of the planet.

It is ridiculous to conjure up a picture of orderly evacuation, for instance. from Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond to this side of the county.

But let us describe it. The tunnel would be blocked by one or two blowouts or engine stalls. The same would block and stall traffic on roads from the East Oakland hills and on the San Pablo Dam Road to Orinda.

PANIC WOULD inevitably result. Children and mothers looking for husbands and fathers, etc. Let's face it. A new department in Contra Costa County to handle the problem of civil defense is not the answer, or even a part of the answer.

It is either co-existence or co-extinction which we have to decide upon!

TOM KENDALL

Dear Editor:

As we near the end of our fiscal year, I want to extend my sincere thanks to you for the wonderful cooperation we received from you and your newspaper during our recent Christmas Seal Sale campaign.

The cooperation of yourself and your fellow editors made this the most successful year in the history of the Contra Costa Tuberculosis and Health Association, both financially and publicity-wise. Although still short of our goal, Christmas Seal purchases have neared the $60,000 mark.

County Approves EBMUD Yard Plan

East Bay Municipal Utility District received County Planning Commisison a p p r o v a l Tuesday night for an EBMUD corporation yard to be located south of the projected Lafayette By-Pass, at Thomson Road.

Request for approval was made by John Reilley of the utility district's legal staff.

The yard will be on EBMUD right-of-way, about 100 feet wide and approximately 300 feet long, according to Principal Planner H. Russell Griffith, and it will be next to the county corporation yard.

ENTRANCE will be from Thomson Road.

The site was suggested by EBMUD after the Happy Valley Improvement Association opposed plans fo ra corporation yard on EBMUD right-of-way east of Happy Valley Road.

The Happy Valley Road location was proposed at the March 1 Planning Commission session.

FOLLOWING THE protests the commission continued the matter, with hte request that EBMUD consider establishing a yard elsewhere in this area.

Grifiith explained yesterday that as a public agency EBMUD could do what it pleased about its plans for its property, regardless of commission recommendation.

However, it acceded to the commission's March 1 request.

Under The Sun

By Herman Silverman

A pocketful of notes

For years I've been trying to become systematic in gathering news notes. I used to scribble on little hunks of paper and would hide them in my shirt, coat and pants pockets. And then I solved the problem!

I acquired a small note book for my shirt pocket. It works beautifully. I write lots of notes in the book — but then for days upon days I forget to look into the black book. This morning, however, I found some column ideas I had scribbled. Here goes.

Our family doctor and our neighbors are probably beginning to wonder what goes on at the Silverman household late Sunday afternoons. A week ago Sunday at 5 o'clock, Dan, age 7, Janet, 5, and I (ageless) were planting an apricot tree. Let's skip the gruesome details except to report that Dan accidentally planted a shovel a half-inch above Janet's left eye. Result was great turmoil and three stitches and very weak knees all around.

What makes this story unusual? Well, three weeks prior on a Sunday afternoon at about the same hour Mark, 8, fell from the jungle gym onto a jagged object and opened up the back of his head. Great turmoil, four stitches and weak knees.

Next Sunday we cross our fingers.

Why and how come?

Another page in the note book refers to "stories left out of the paper." Every week several unhappy people call us, saying their stories did not get in The SUN. "Why and how come?" We usually check — and most of the time find out the story 1) ran last week; 2) ran this week on page 2, column 4; or 3) has been scheduled for next edition.

Most frequently the caller just didn't spot the story, which is easy to do. We don't consider these calls a complaint; they are really compliments to The SUN. Rest assured that if you turn in a local news item, it will get in the paper.

Next note: "At least three of our Central Contra Costa school districts will have contested elections for their school boards in May. It is a healthy situation when citizens are interested in their school affairs and offer their services to the community. I don't intend to imply that incumbents should be turned out of office, just to achieve a change. But it is good for the district to let the electorate have a choice at the polls.

Battle of Martinez II

And anoher memo: Keep an eye on our county seat, for the Battle of Martinez is continuing between the new and the old. (Read the story in this edition re: Sheriff Brown's request for a confidential assistant — and the opposition.)

The sheriff's department is a good example of what has been going on in county government for years. Confusion, inefficiency, politics. Many (but certainly not all) county employees have sat around so long they don't know how to work an eight-hour day. And while civil service is certainly worthwhile, too many employees now hide behind it. Civil service is being used to hinder or stop progress. The County Employees Association should realize that civil service is a privilege, not a right, granted by the people. It should not be used as a political tool or to stop progress.

That finishes the black note book. Next week let's turn to the asbestos file.

Reading Study Series Continues

By JEAN SCOTT

What was to be the last of the study groups for parents of children with reading difficulties was held March 17 at Burton School under the guidance of District Curriculum Director Ben Harris.

Due to the number of requests for a repeat of the series, however, it will be given again, starting April 14. This time the parents will be those with children of kindergarten age.

At the recent meeting, which dealt with the subject of how to help your child at home, Harris opened with a brief talk on the importance of three basic teaching areas that must be explored before the child becomes a good reader.

First, a background for reading must be provided, he said, "for a child must have interests to bring to the printed page."

Second, the skills of reading must be taught in a friendly and unpressured atmosphere. "Drill is the simplest approach, of course, but it's hard on the soul if carried to extremes. There must be meaning behind the drill."

Third, the habit of reading must be started. "See to it that there are plenty of books and magazines handy in the house for the child to pick up and read."

Alice McMaster, curriculum consultant, presided over a question and answer period in which group and individual reading problems were discussed by parents and teachers.

Teachers participating in the roundtable were Jean Kirlin, Betty Hiskey and Gertrude Brown, first grades; Lois Kichens and Retta Maninger, second grades; Kathryn Guppy and Agnes Walsh, third grades.

Sand 'Playing' Brings Damage

Two children stuffed sand down the exhaust stacks of a heavy excavating caterpillar last weekend, causing damage tentatively estimated at $300.

The equipment, owned by the Lucas Grading and Paving Company of Orinda, was parked on Thomson Road, Lafayette.

When the damage was discovered Monday morning, Deputy Sheriff Fred Teuscher investigated.

He found toys nears the equipment, leading him to believe the "culprits" lived nearby. He knocked on the first door he came to, he reported.

A little girl about 4 years old answered. Teuscher said she "told all."

She identified herself and an 8-year-old neighbor boy as having poured the sand down the stacks.

Tuescher then talked to the children's parents. He said the parents indicated they would make amends for the damage.

Drivers—Tomorrow's S-Day!

Tomorrow is S-Day—meaning Safety Pledge Day for drivers.

You'll be able to sign your safe-driving pledge at Black's Market in Orinda, Clark's Market in Moraga or the Lafiesta Foods parking area in Lafayette.

The Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce, working with the California Safety Council, is sponsoring the distribution of pledges in this area.

The two organizations ask the automobile driver to sign a safety pledge and display a fluorescent rear bumper sticker which serves a dual purpose—to help show up the rear of the car at night and to announce that the driver has signed a pledge to drive safely and courteously and observe the rules of the road.

The loca lcommittee is headed by Don Hall, who with a crew of Jaycees will man the booths at the three locations.

The Safety pledge, in the accompanying coupon, can also be signed and mailed to the Lafayette-Orinda Junior Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 1122, Lafayette. The fluorescent safety sticked will be mailed to the pledger. It says: "Safety Pledge—I've signed it—Have you?"

MY SOLEMN PLEDGE:

I will operate my car at all times and under all circumstances with ut most consideration for human life.

In furtherance of this pledge I promise in highest conscience to:

1. KNOW AND WILLINGLY OBEY ALL TRAFFIC LAWS.
2. CONSTANTLY MAINTAIN MY VEHICLE IN SAFE DRIVING CONDITION.
3. COURTEOUSLY AND DECENTLY OBSERVE THE ACCEPTED RULES OF THE ROAD.
